THE WAY WE WERE . . .

LES MEMOIRES

Memories,
Light the corners of my mind . . .

DEDICATION

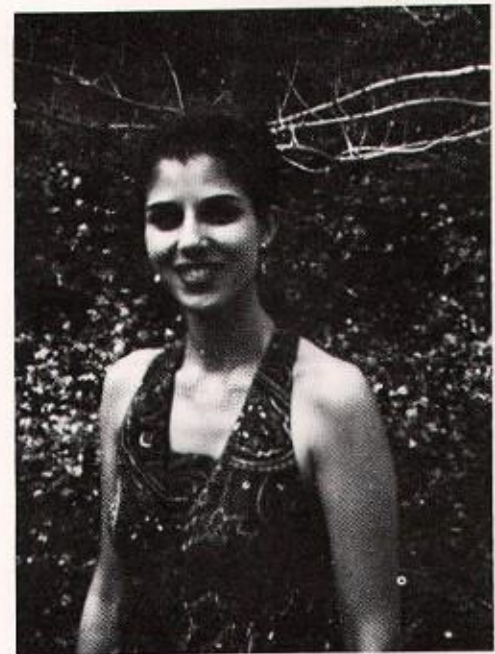

We, the class of 1977, would like to convey our fondest appreciation to one of the greats of Wilson. She is a woman of many talents and qualities. This rare beauty, with her unique charm and dignity, gladly aids all those who seek her help. She is responsible for transforming a dull school paper into a thriving popular publication.

To occupy this space, one must make their mark at Wilson by displaying leadership, responsibility, and concern for the students. In a few short years this educator of writing and speaking certainly has made her mark.

With befitting honor, we dedicate this edition of LES MEMOIRES to Mrs. Barbara Beck.

Misty water color memories . . .

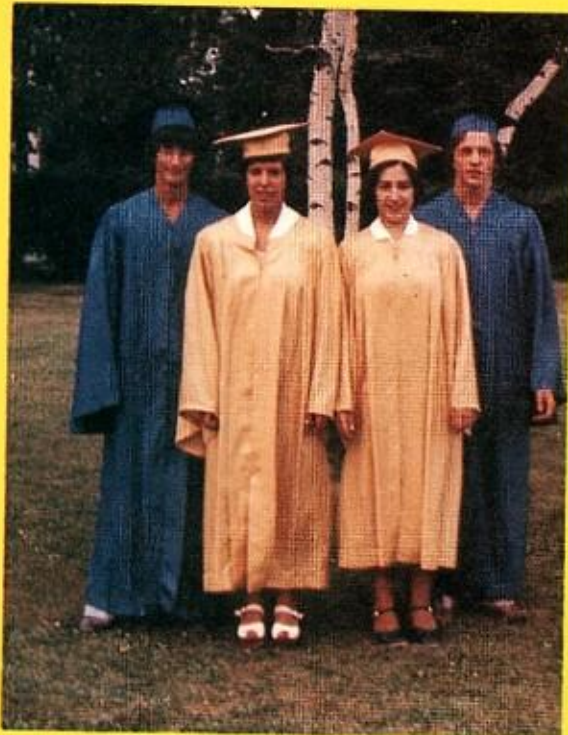

GRADUATION DAY

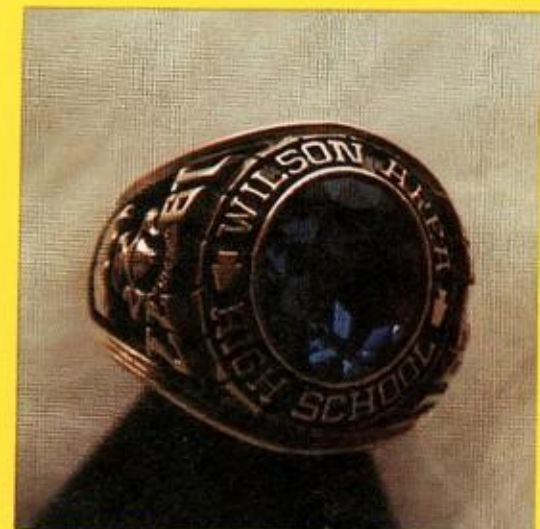

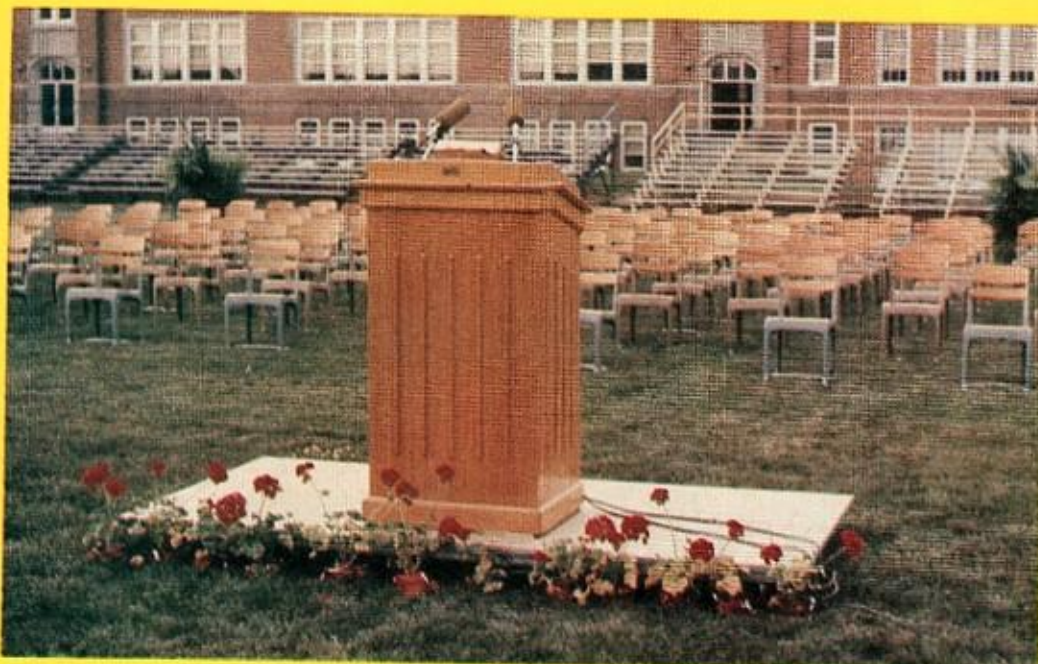

After waiting for twelve grueling years, we've finally gained the knowledge, self confidence, and freedom enjoyed by adults. As we exit from those glass doors that imprisoned us every day from the early morning hours until the last bell had rung, we contemplate all we're leaving behind. The hours of homework . . . the years, it seemed, waiting for inspiration to come when you hadn't studied for that "big" test . . . the teachers who sometimes helped, sometimes hindered the learning process . . . the weeks deciding which direction our futures would take after we left, pondering each option, hoping to pick the right one. We spent each day waiting for that one day that would be the last of our childhood days - Graduation Day.

And now that great day has come and gone and we wonder if it was worth all the troubles and frustrations. You bet it was!

Scattered pictures,

CAR WASH BLUES

Patino's gas station fell victim to over a score of overzealous juniors armed with sponges, hoses and Lux liquid.

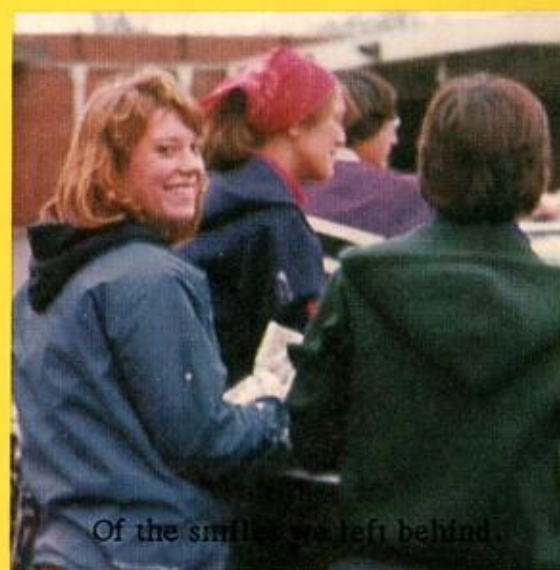

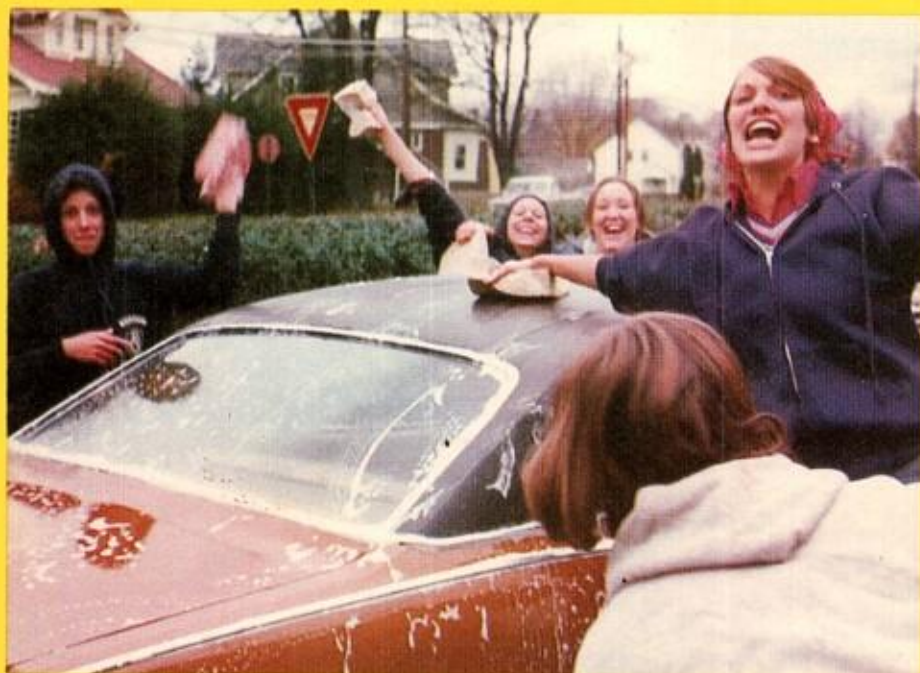

Approximately one hundred scungy, mud-encrusted cars were miraculously transformed into squeaky clean (?) sparkling (?) autos.

Despite temperatures that approached 374 K. (1C.), sponges were thrown with amazing accuracy, hoses were manned by sharpshooters; NO ONE remained dry.

This rather offbeat activity had a more serious side. Its purpose was to supplement our junior prom.

It's truly amazing that amidst all this tomfoolery we came out $365.00 richer.

(Our apologies to those patrons who got soaked or lost gas caps, hub caps, etc.)

Of the smiles we left behind.

Smiles we gave to one another,
for the way we were.

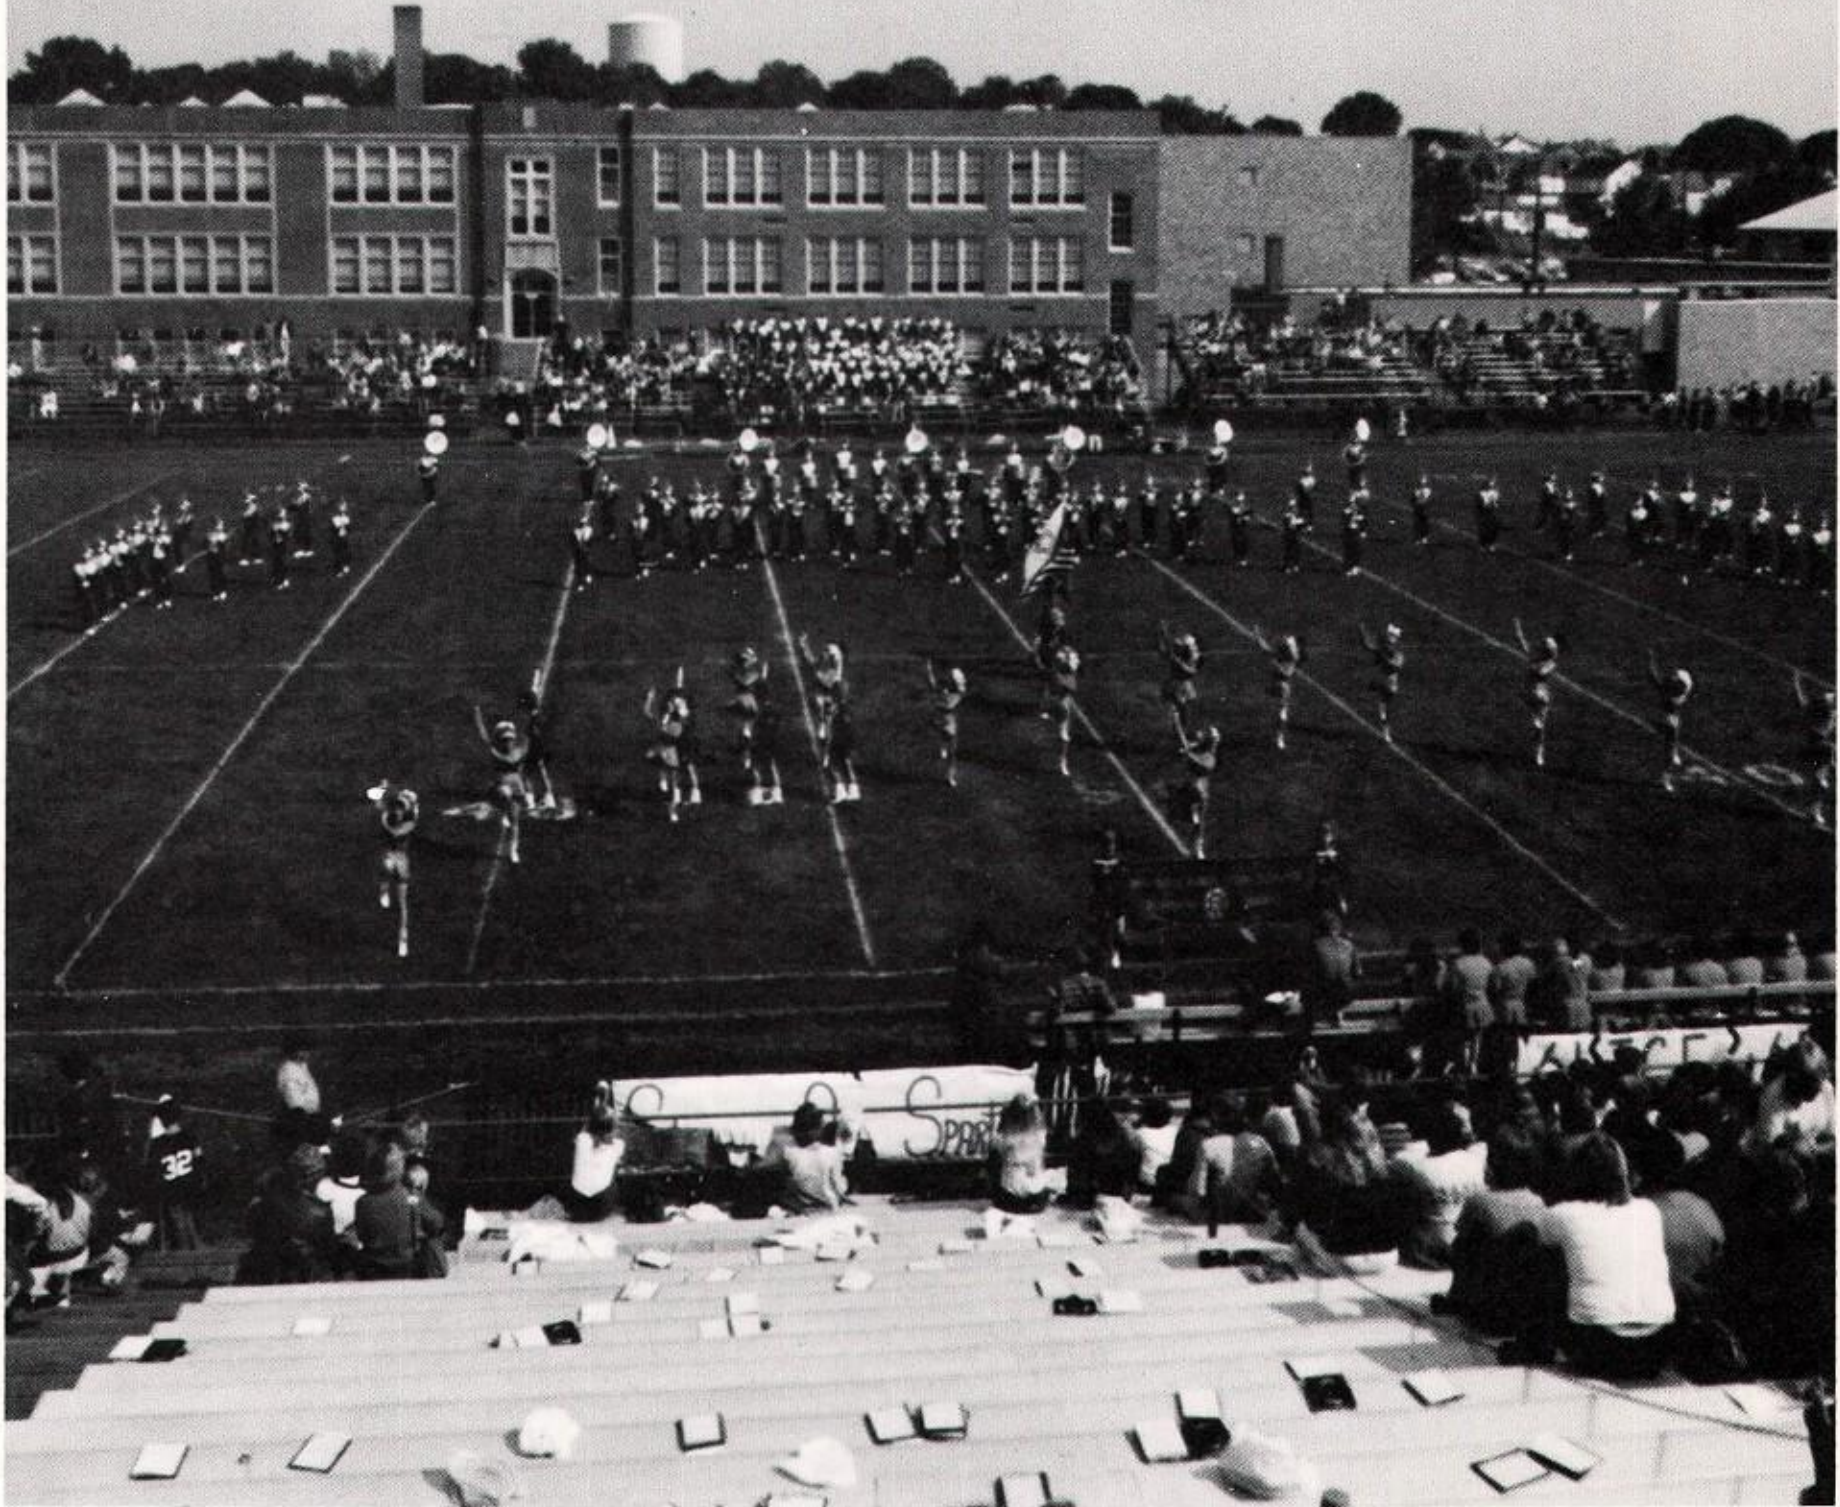

FOREWORD

The years have passed by, some quickly, some with agonizing slowness. We've worked or played through these years. We've learned and experienced only as much as we have permitted ourselves to, as we prepared for our niche in life. The real world is out there waiting in anxious anticipation for every one of us, each as a unique individual.

LES MEMOIRES is mere ink and paper. Its ultimate purpose, however, is to insure for ourselves the safekeeping of the thoughts and memories we leave behind.

David J. DiVentura,
Editor-in-chief

The painting of Eastern Overall's wall may have been the biggest controversy of our senior year.

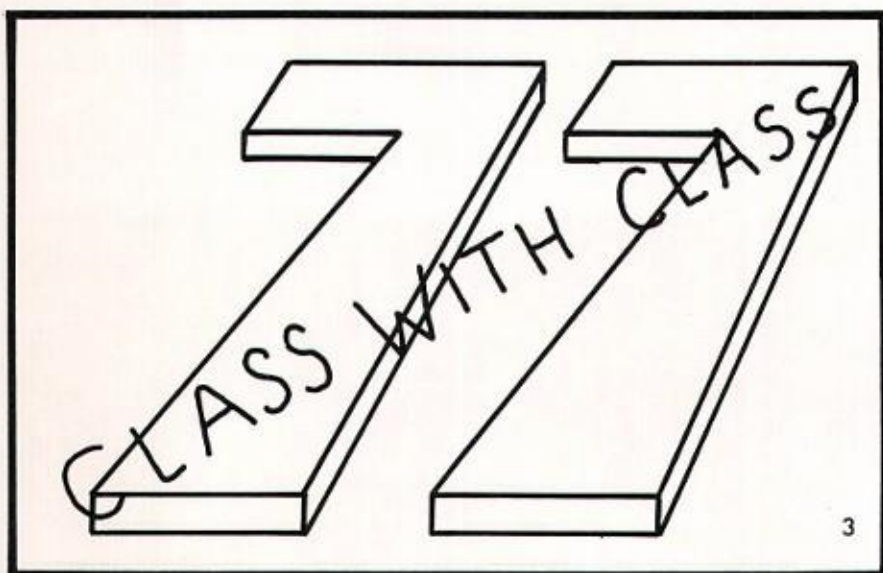

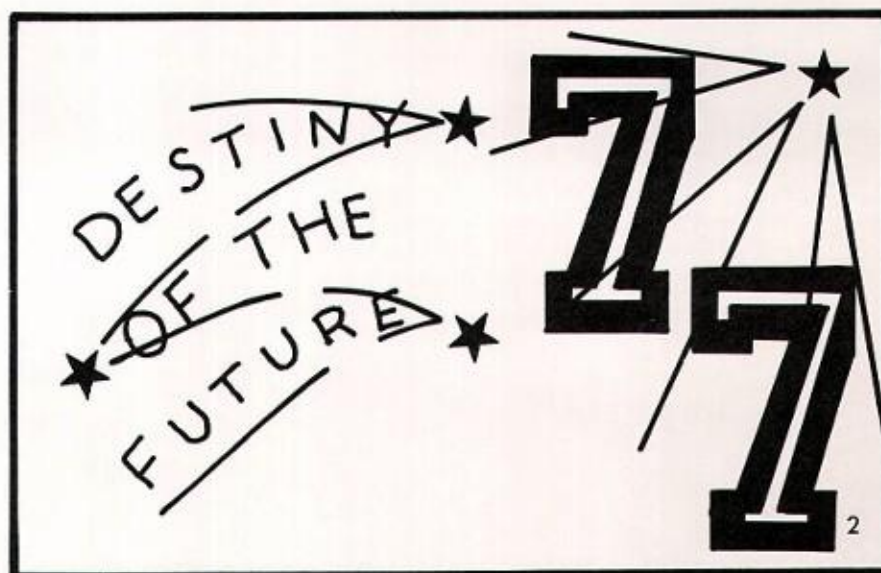

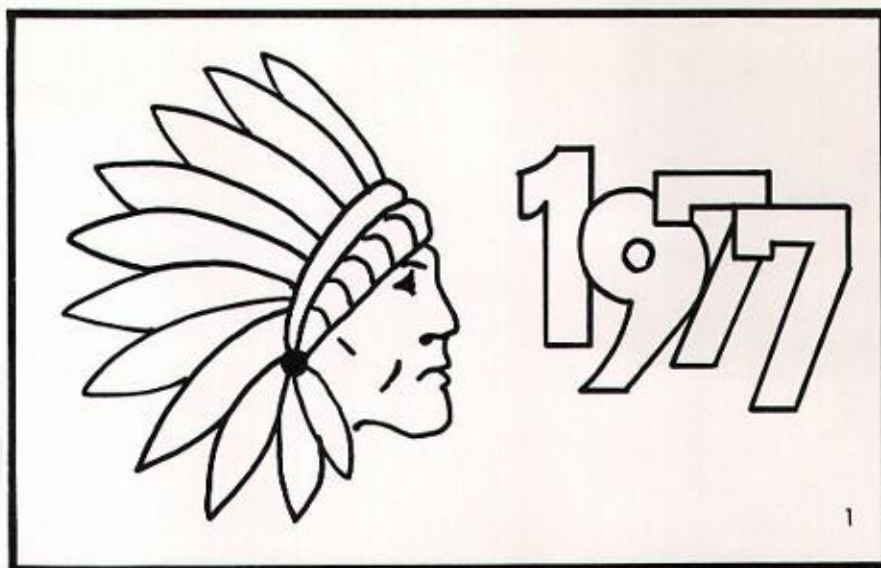

After the preliminary meetings in the spring of 1976 design 5 was presented to the wall committee by Chris Young. In the fall of 1976 design 6 was presented by Mike Stout. Design 7 was submitted by a group of seniors. Design 3 was modified into design 4. Finally design 2, drawn by Sue Fisher, was derived from 4 and 6.

The decision was made at a class meeting to disregard the previously taken votes. The class members present compromised and decided to submit the sketch to Mr. Shapiro, owner of Eastern Overall, for approval. He rejected the idea saying that he preferred a symbol to a slogan.

Consequently design 1 was contrived and ultimately became our wall.

Many seniors were disillusioned by the perplexing meetings, the hassles and the divided class. They considered the permission slips and arrangements making annoying details.

When we reminisce about our wall, enough time will have passed by for us to realize a few important facts that got lost in the shuffle. We did paint a wall, we did have fun, and we did prove that the "Class of 77" does have pride in our class and in our school.

COLOUR

On May 1st of 1976, the Class of '77 sponsored the Jr.-Sr. Prom. "Colour My World" was the theme, excellently carried over into the decorations. The royalty of the prom was Linda Fisher and Keith Baskwell. When the band began playing, the majority of people were on their feet dancing, and several times a gigantic chain was formed. Despite the rainy weather outside, the prom was enjoyed by all who attended. In the eyes of the people who worked for it, surely there will never be a better prom.

Or has time rewritten every line, and if we had the chance to do it all again . . .

MY WORLD

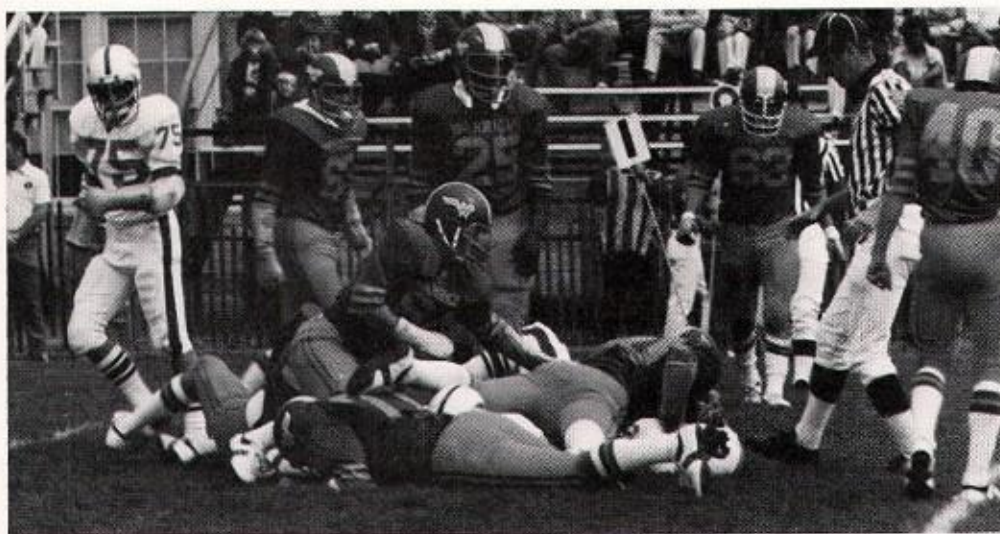

Linda Fisher and Keith Baskwell dance to the theme song of the prom. The King and Queen were picked from all the senior couples attending.

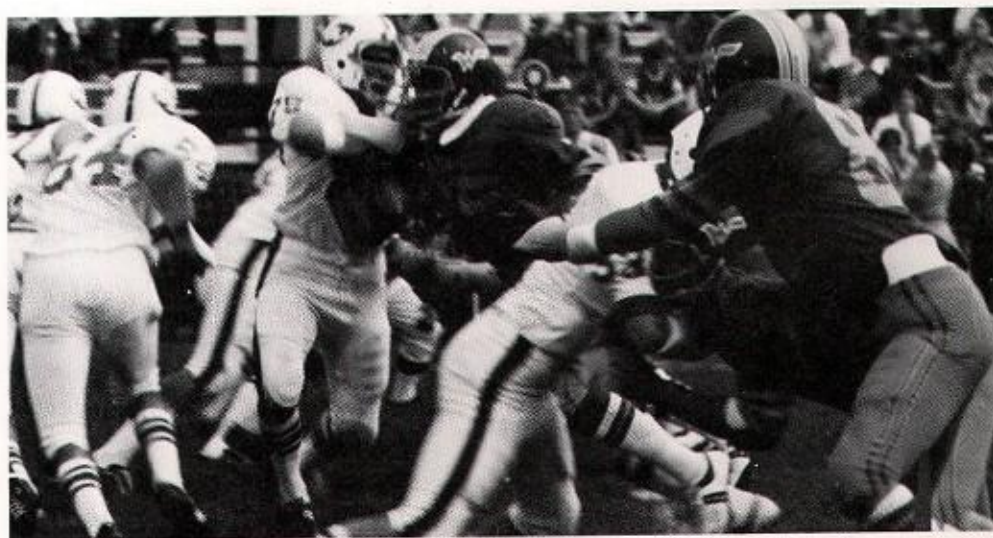

Tell me, would we, could we?
Memories, may be beautiful . . . and yet

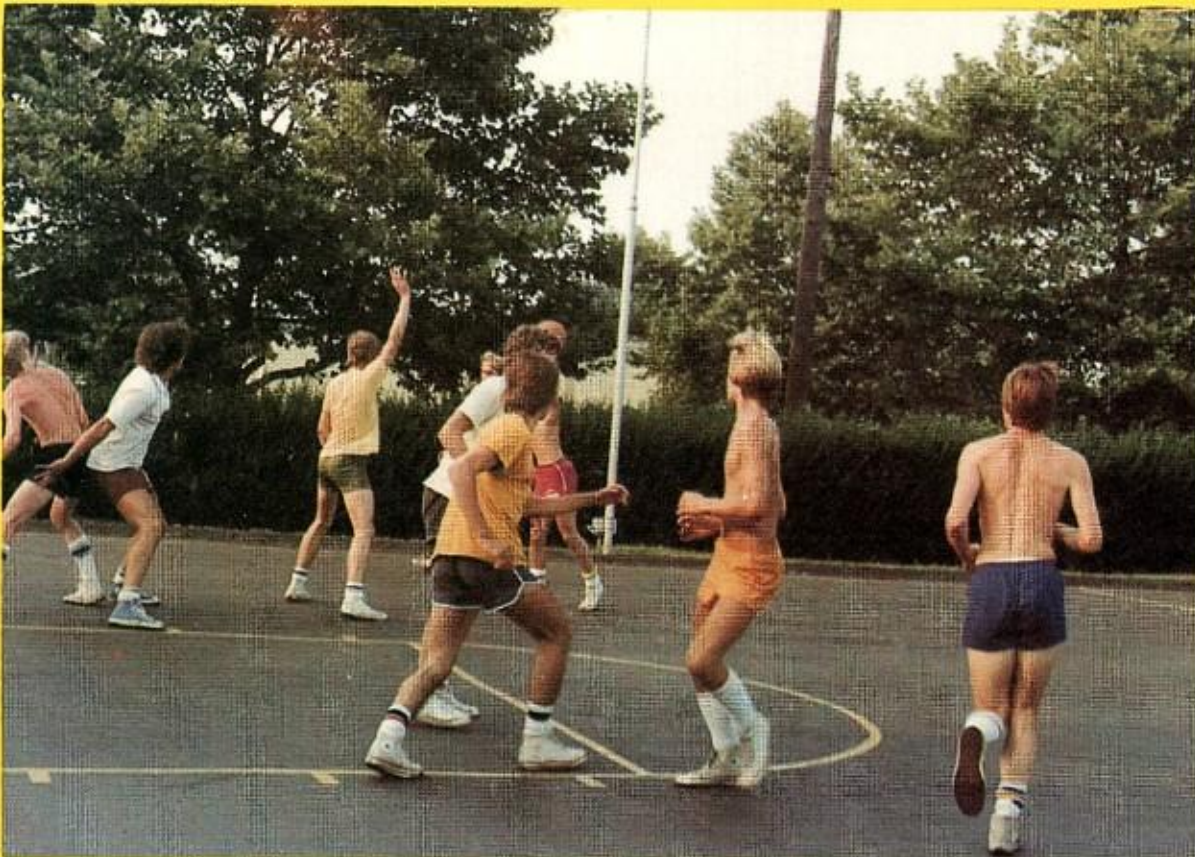

Throughout the season, the football team was plagued with injuries from leg operations to busted noses. Yet through all of the disappointments, the morale of the team was not extinguished. Hours of back breaking practices perfected their skills and brought the team a winning season.

SUMMER

Summer, that glorious season that we wait for from early September until the last exams have been taken, has finally managed to come again and we've managed to survive the nine months when the teachers chained us to our seats, took out their whips, and told us to learn. But usually after a few weeks of blessed hours of sleeping, boredom sets in. Here are some of the ways that boredom can be alleviated. Enjoy your summer, the whips are getting longer next year.

TIME

So it's the laughter . . .

Our Faithful Leader

Monkey in the middle

Can you help me?

Not so hard!

Our Wilson Warrior Band has won awards from Disney World, Florida to Niagara Falls, Canada; yet many people only see it during half time at a football game - if they stay in the stands. Every year, the band comes out in the sweltering heat of August to get ready for their football games and competitions. Practices are from early morning to late afternoon, in the summers. When school starts they practice every day after school 'til 5 under relentless repetitions from their fearless leader saying, "One more time." This year they brought chimes onto the field for homecoming, but their season didn't stop there. They began practicing for concerts on stage, and also provided the orchestra for "Bye, Bye, Birdie" and "Funny Girl." So, next time you watch the band at half time, remember all of their efforts, and maybe you'll clap a little harder.

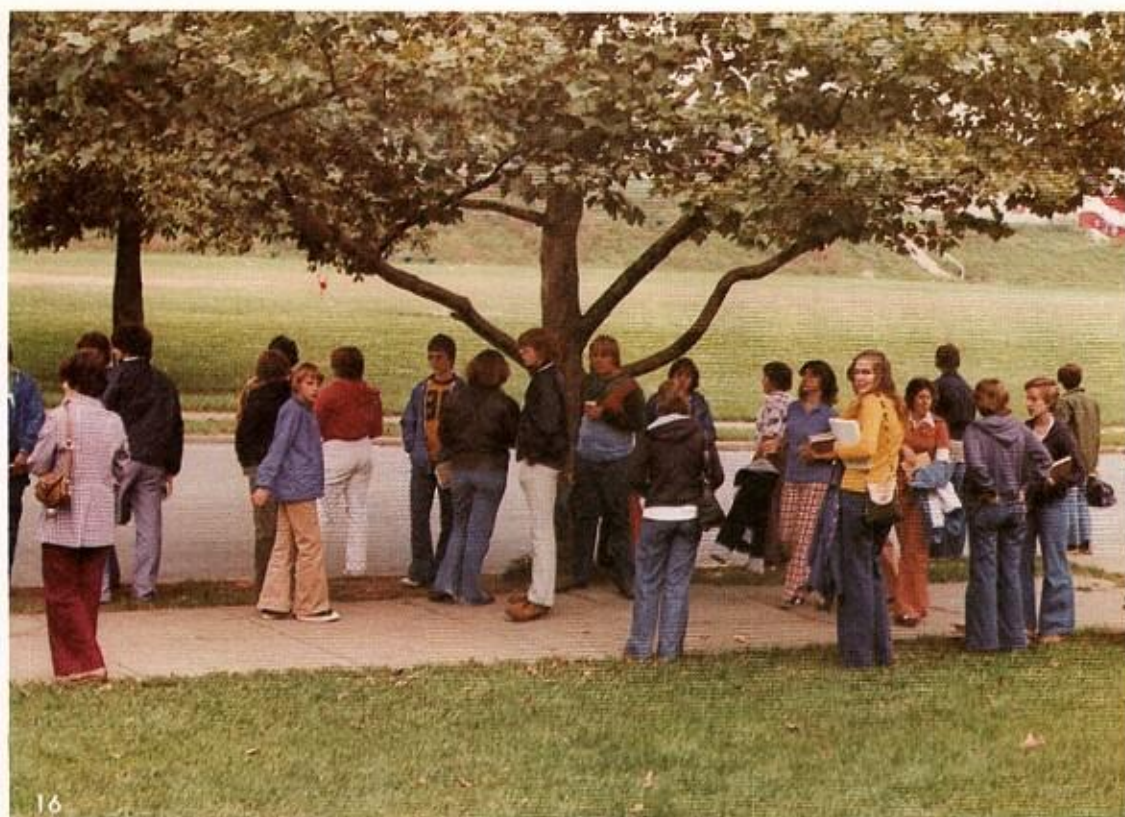

Whenever we remember . . .

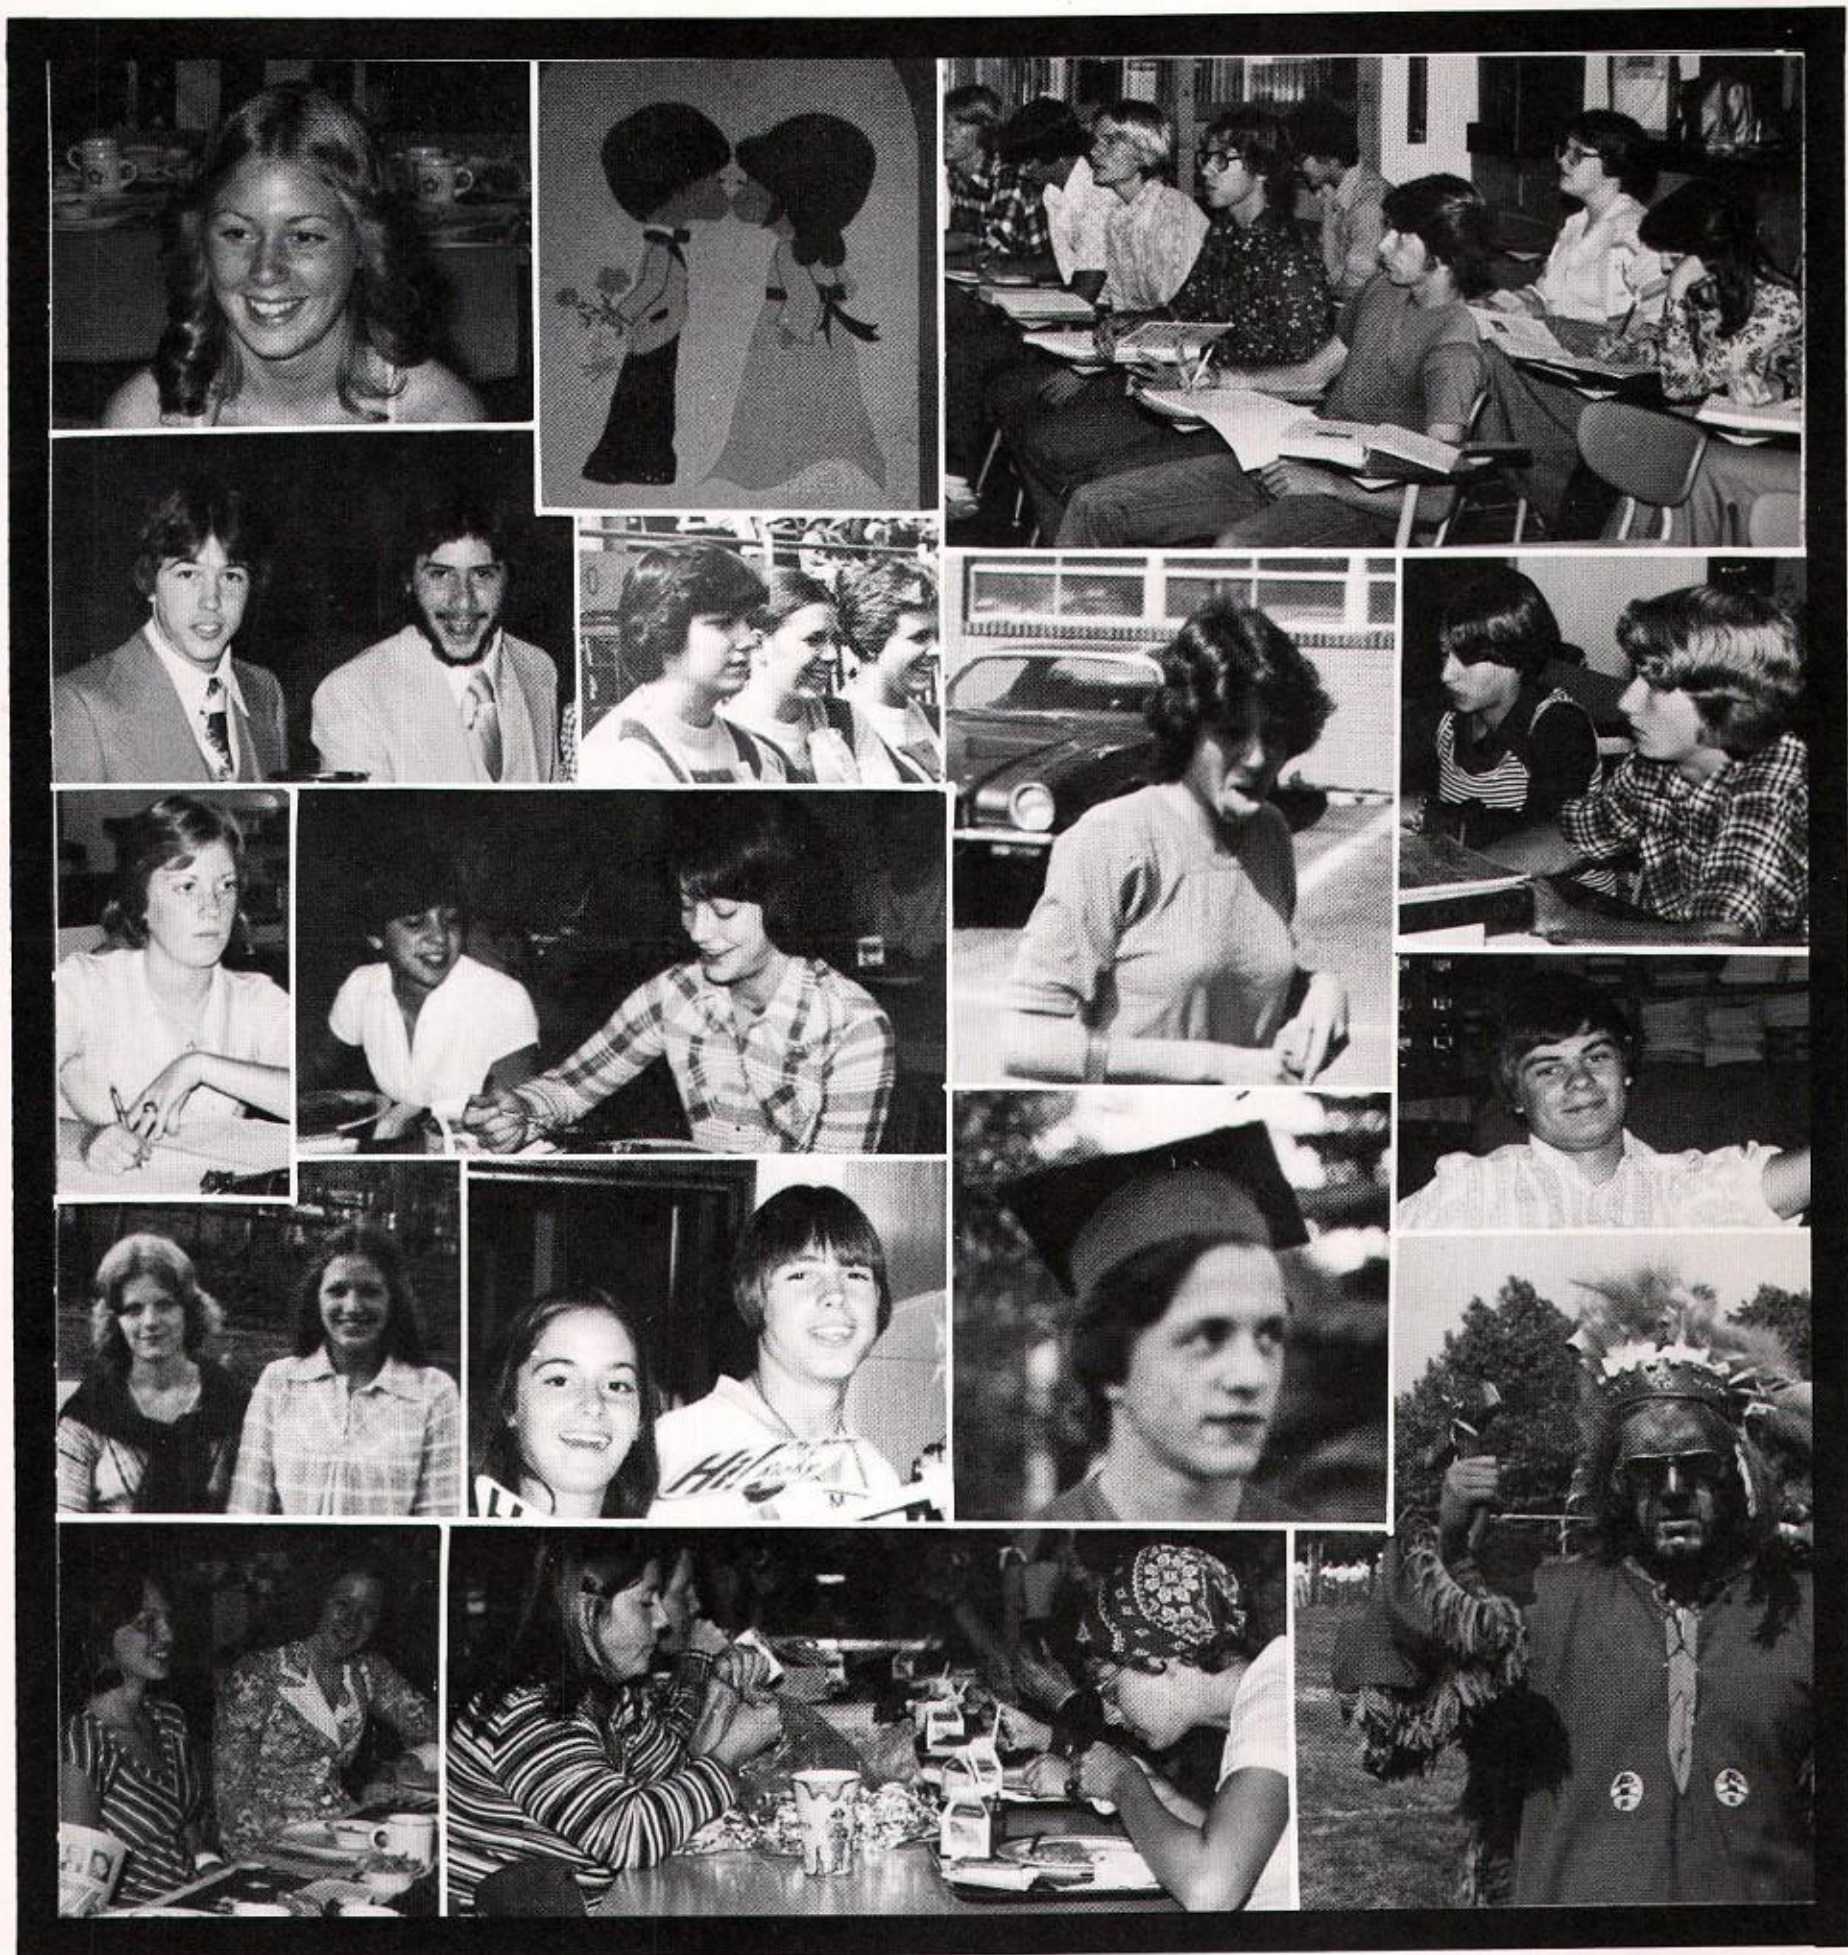

Guess who?

In every school, there are places where the students go to congregate. Wilson is no exception to the rule. Kids gather in the morning in the cafeteria, at lunch to eat that delicious (cough! cough!) food and after school to wait for their buses. Last, but certainly not the least, on the gym steps - until the cops come and clap on the old hand cuffs for loitering after school hours.

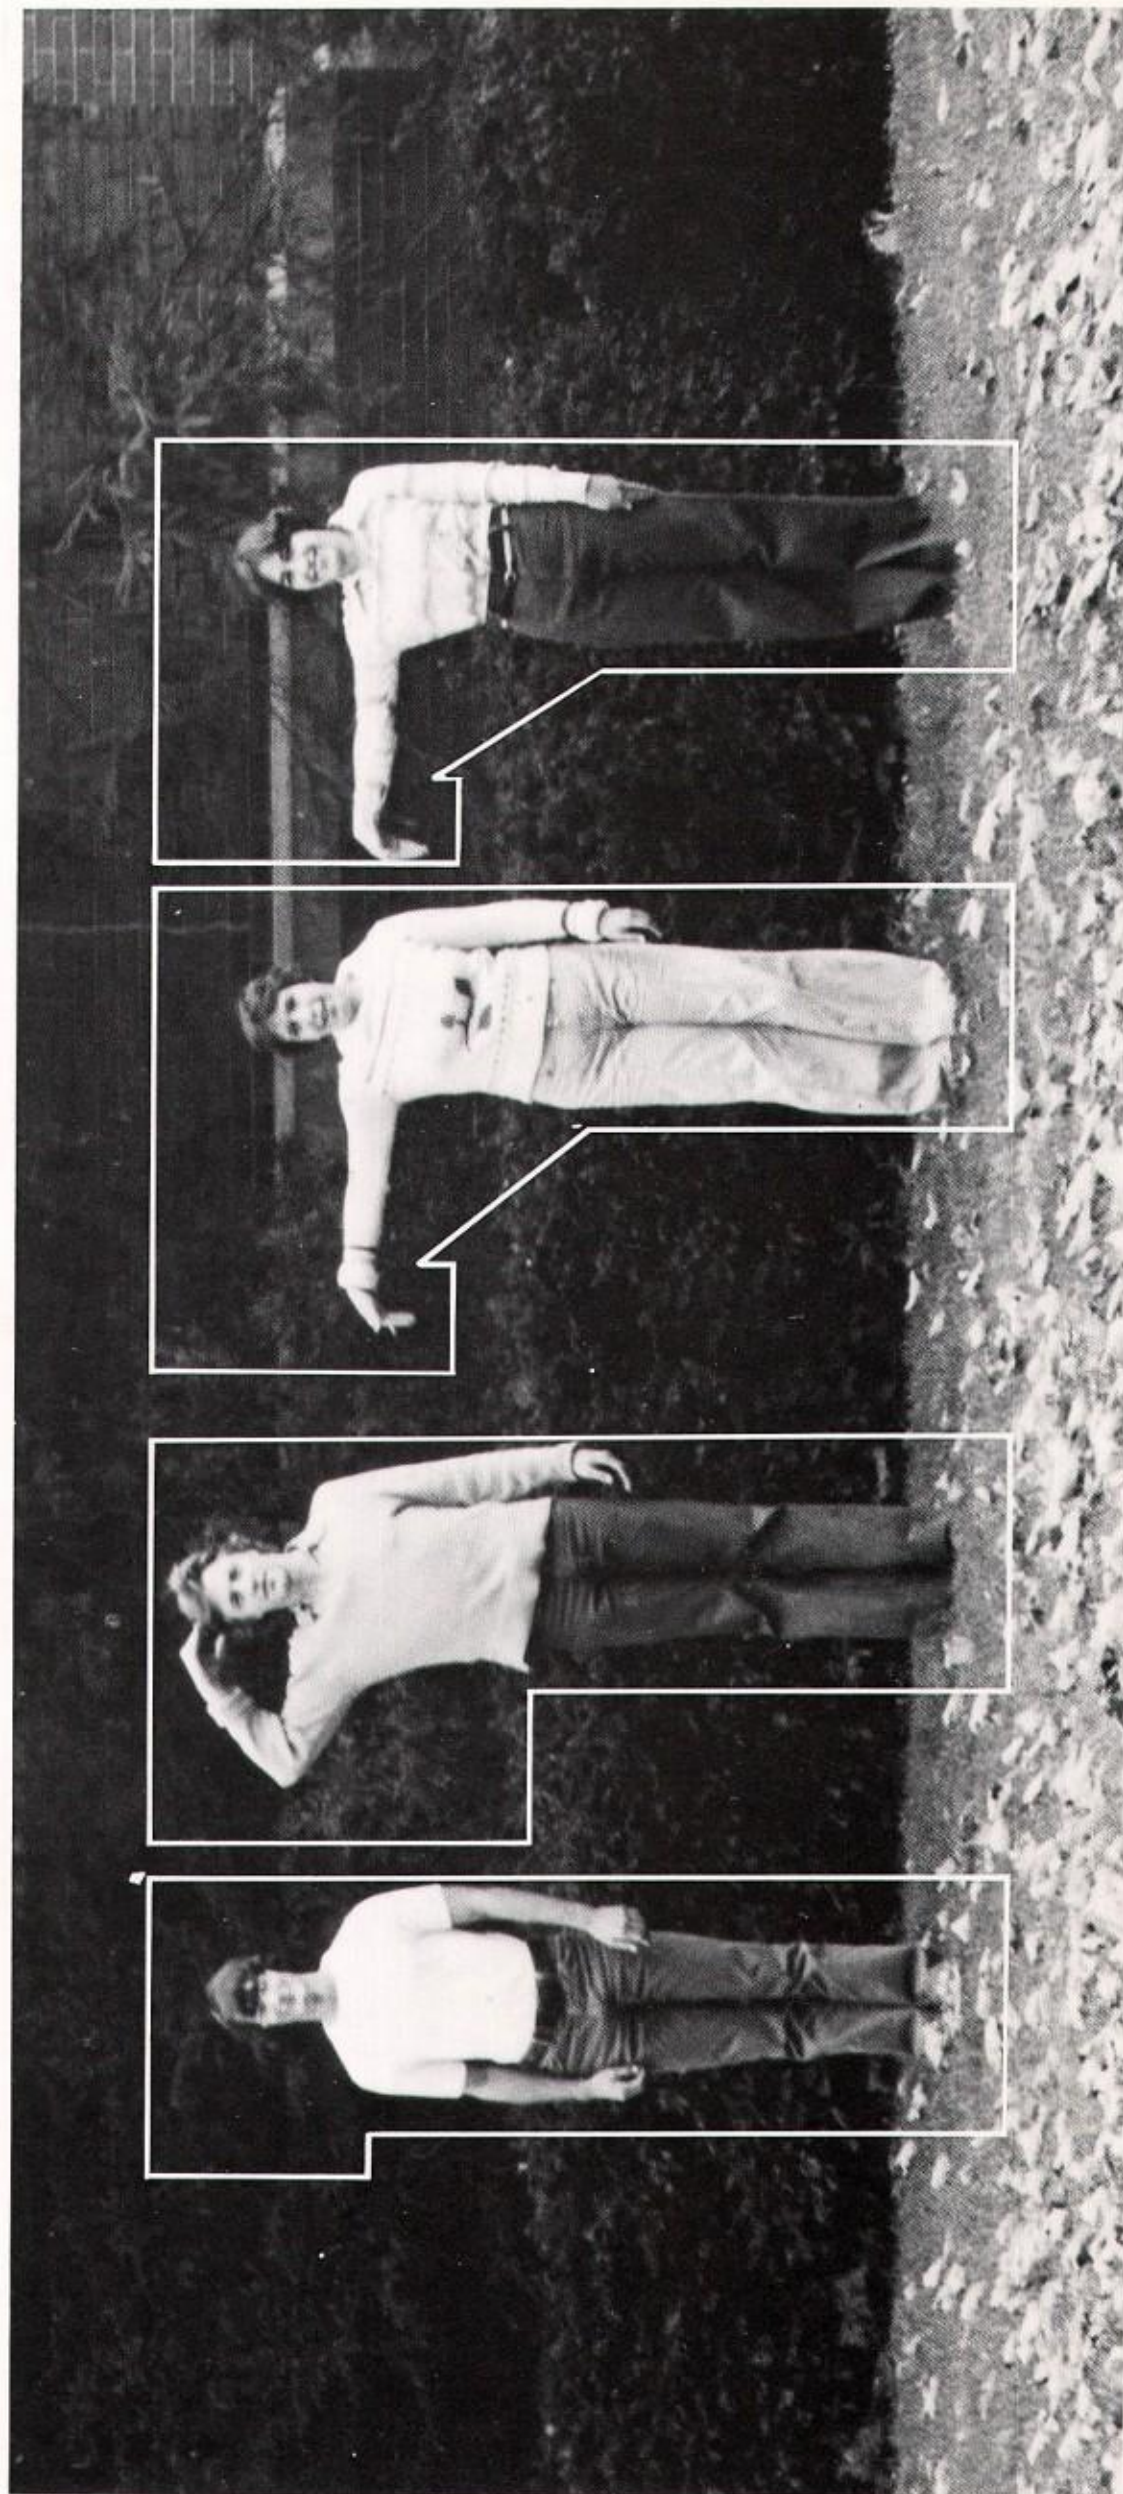

The way we were.

Congeniality is one thing, but Maggie Pecora and Rick Wenner always have a "Handy" hello or a "Footy" farewell for everyone they meet.

Lisa DiLorenzo and Lew Critelli certainly are the most likely to succeed. Just to get this picture taken, they succeeded in 1) Getting to Mr. Berger's office, 2) Finding the key to the safe, 3) . . .

RANDY LEIDY

Bob McWilliams, and Chris Montesana, our class clowns, poke fun into the ears of J. Harry Dew. (Also his eyes, nose, mouth, etc.)

And the winners are . . .!

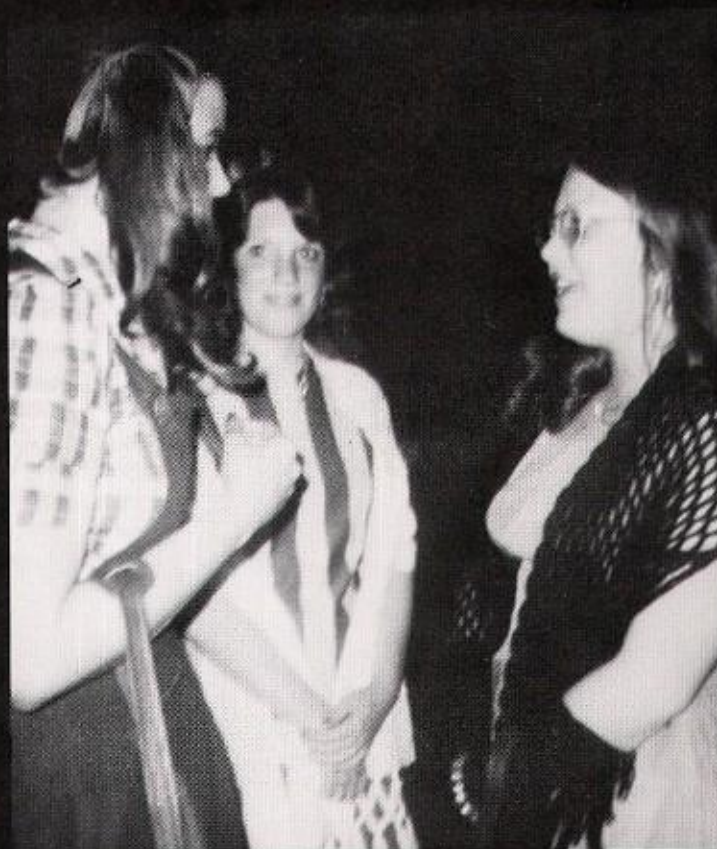

1. "Hey, honey - do you want to crawl in my locker for the rest of today?"
2. "It's open season on teachers. I'm gonna get me a few."
3. Scott Johnson and Jayne King, our curliest headed seniors, may look like they've been electricuted but really it's just "natural".
4. "FILL it up with regular!"
5. Setting up for their concert, Sue Lesh and Mark Campbell, our most musical duo, get their act together. A two-man band they are not - but they try hard!
6. "Wow! What a powerful biceps!"

The Movies

Invitations were extended to all celebrities in the sophomore class for the premiere of "The Movies" on April 18, 1975. The best "actor and actress" chosen were Steve Schaffer and Joni Walter. Some live entertainment was provided also. Among the guests attending were Maude, Columbo, Shirley Temple, and many other familiar faces. "The Movies," a unique theme for the Sophomore Hop, was enjoyed by all.

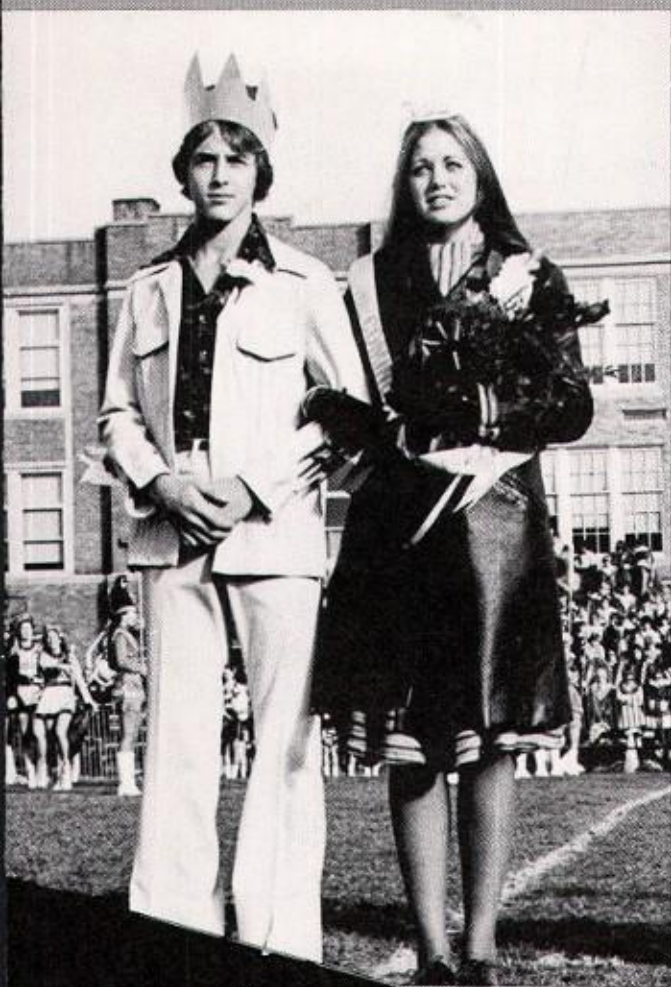

OUR FIRST

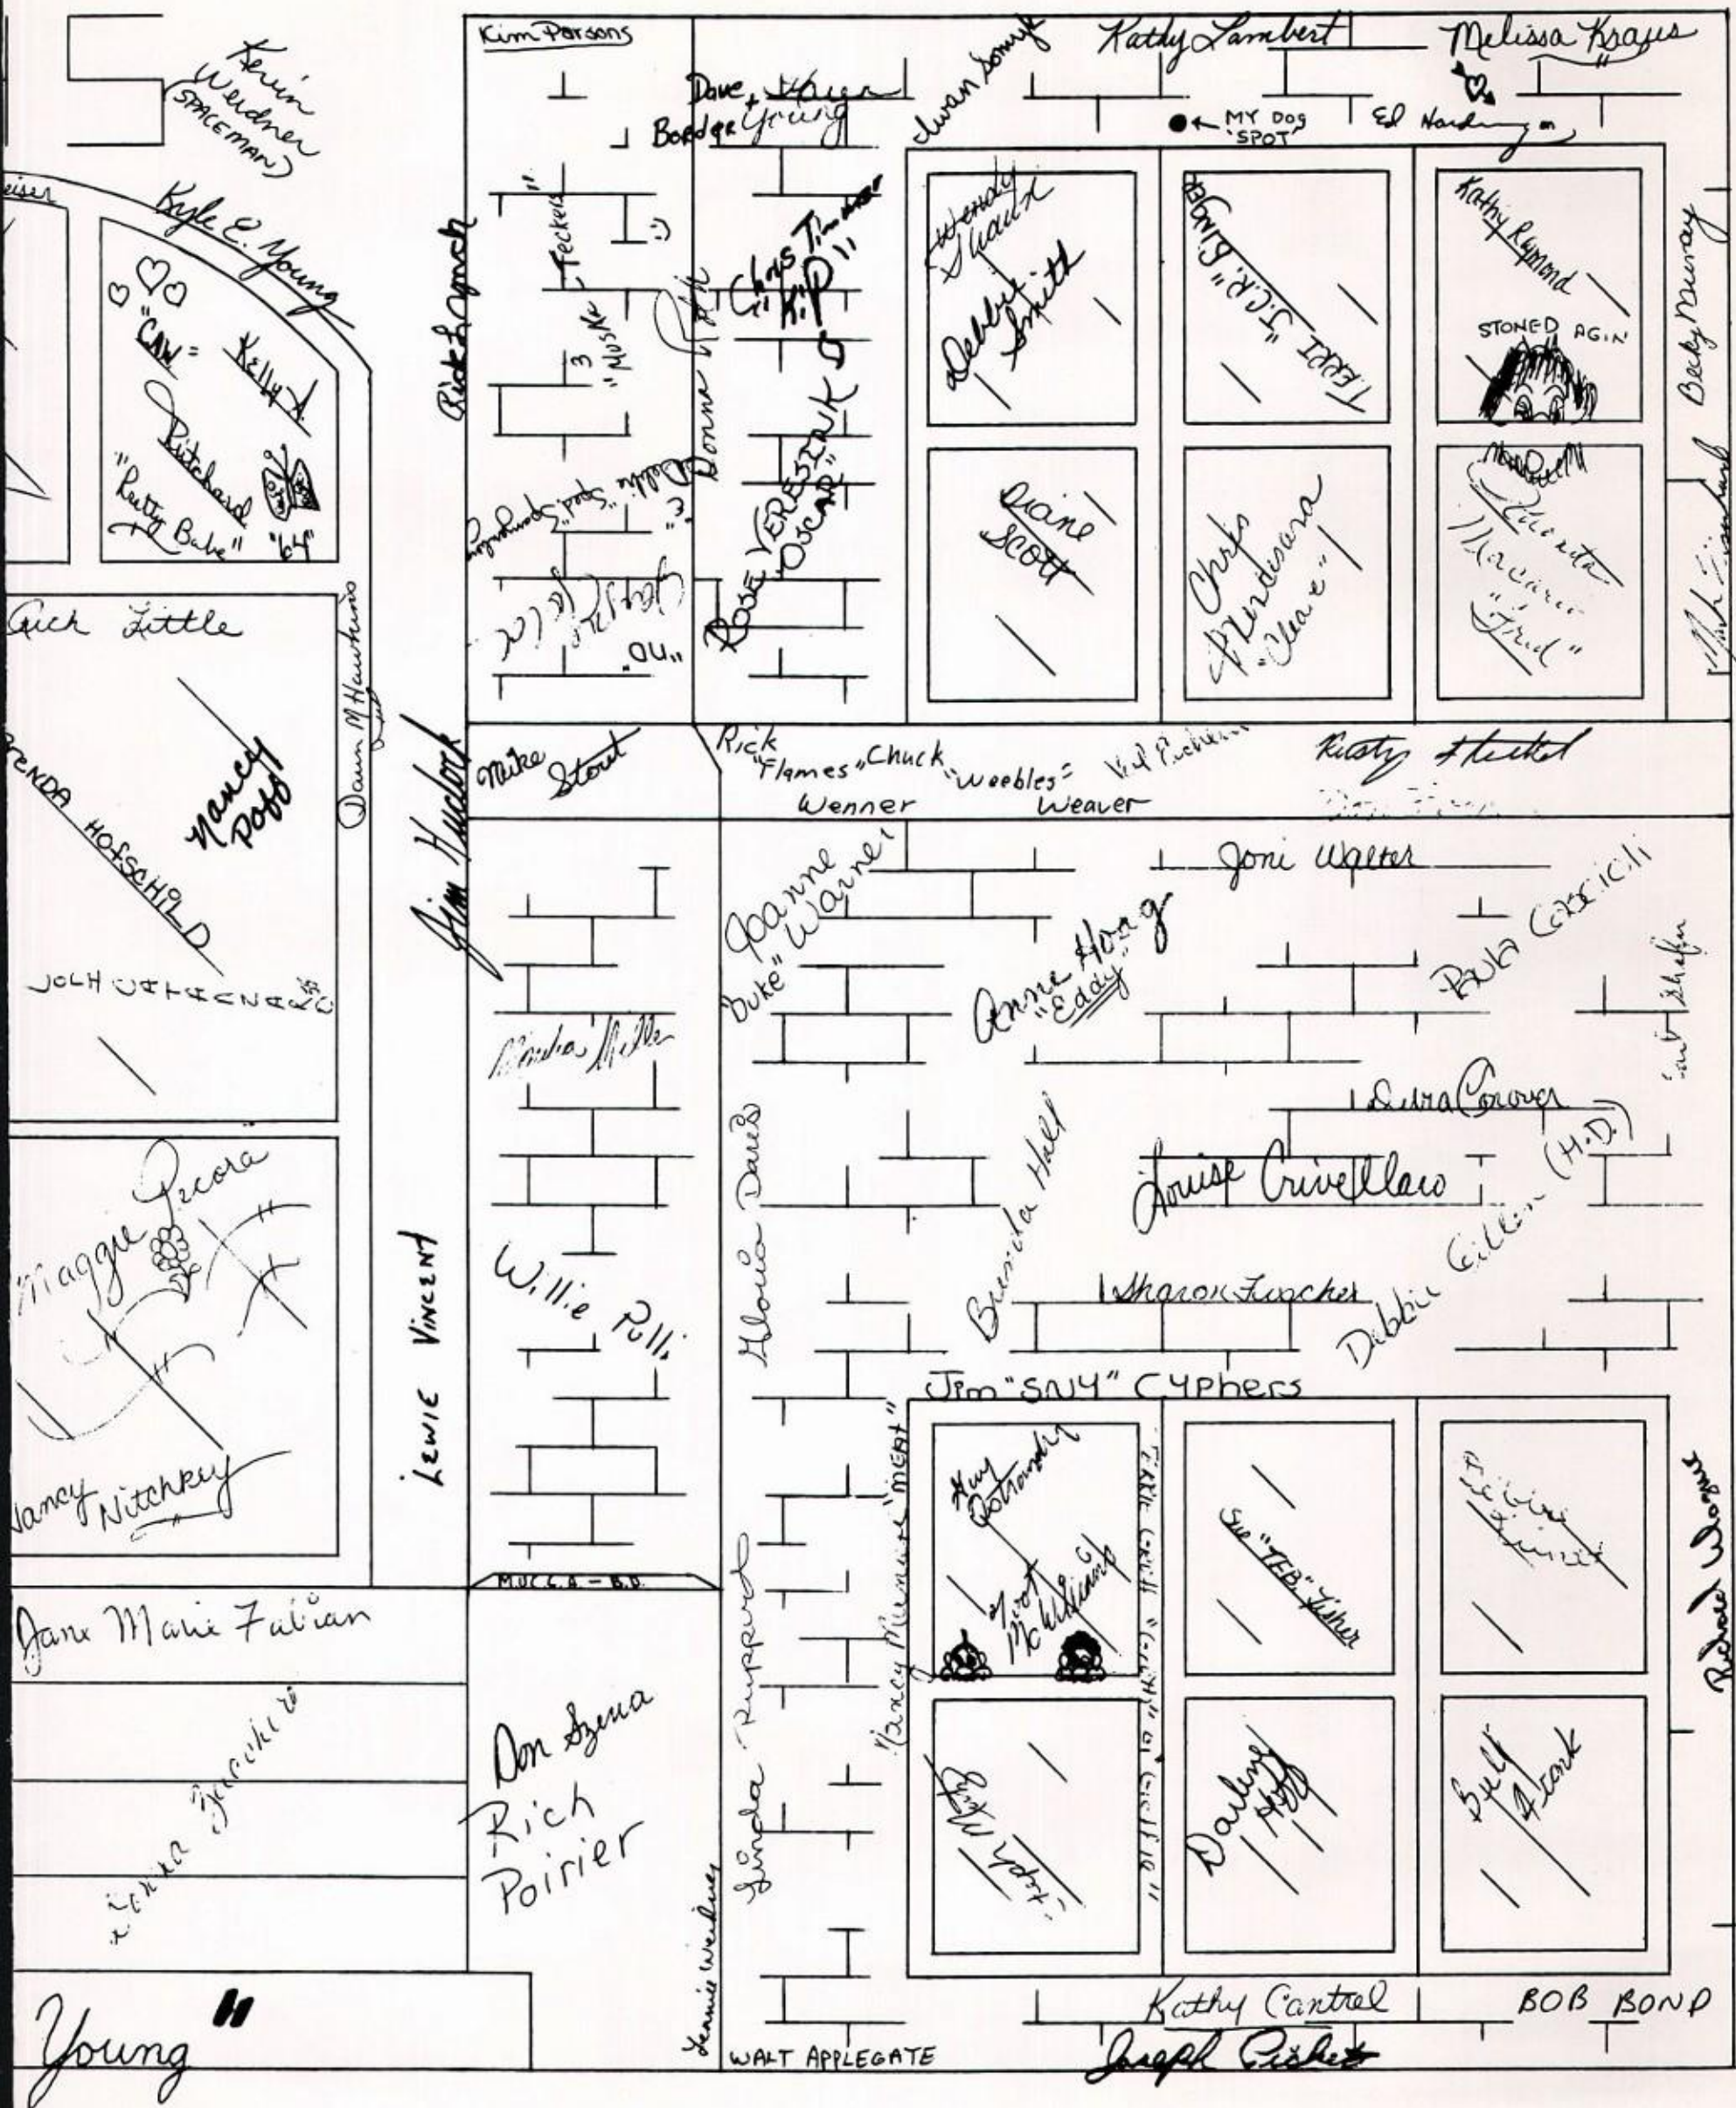

Wilson's first Homecoming, held during the weekend of the Salisbury football game, replaced the traditional Turkey Day game as the highlight of the football season. Spirits were high after a Friday afternoon pep rally, and the fans weren't disappointed as Wilson rallied to a victory.

HOMECOMING

During the halftime festivities, Anne Hoag was crowned as Homecoming Queen and was escorted by "Mr. Irresistible," Chris Young. The Queen's Court consisted of Barb Deck, Melissa Kraus, Maggie Pecora, and Nancy Nitchkey. Their escorts were Gary Buckman, Wayne Fisher, David Leiby, and David Miller, representing the varsity sports. Anne and Chris also reigned at the victory dance held that night.

Riddled with injuries from the outset of the season, the Wilson football team struggled to stay alive. Gary Buckman, last year's thousand yard rusher, was out for the season with a knee injury. No one expected the Warriors to produce very much without him. However, thanks to their great team spirit and great coaching, they stuck together and overcame their handicaps. Hamilton and Crivellaro filled the backfield and produced a powerful one-two punch up the middle. Unfortunately, the offense was a little inexperienced and they didn't gel until the middle of the season. Unlike the offense, the defense was very experienced. The defense which was the backbone of the team, kept the games close until the offense could get it together. This team didn't have many superstars. They were just average players that, with great determination and pride, put together one of the best seasons that Wilson has had for a long time.

What's your handle?

Congratulations to the Freshman Football Team for one helluva season. They were the first team in Wilson's history to go undefeated and unscored upon.

Learning the system that Wilson uses was not an easy task for these future stars. However, they adapted quickly; and with a lot of pride, great coaching, and a little luck, produced a team that will be remembered at Wilson for a long time. We can only wish you more of the same success in the future.

Gee your hair smells terrific!

After a disappointing 1-8 start, the Warrior Soccer team rallied to win three of their last four matches to finish 4-9-0 overall and 4-6-0 in league play.

The Warriors were 1-4 in the first half of league play and allowed eighteen goals while scoring only eight themselves. The second half showed a marked improvement with the record moving to 3-2 while allowing only ten goals and collecting twelve. The only losses of the second half were to perennial league champion Palisades (2-1) and to the powerful 1976 championship Saucon Valley team (5-1).

Seniors Dave Miller, Steve Schaffer, Rick Hart, and Rich Benninger accounted for nineteen of the twenty-three Warrior scores and sixteen assists (including two by Chuck Weaver).

Hi, I'm Gus Mellick and you're not.

Sing around the barb wire . . .

This year's hockey team under the able coaching abilities of Coaches Charlie Mellick and Dawn Fretz came out with a 2-12 record. The record, though not impressive, fails to demonstrate the perseverance of these girls. Two of the players were chosen for the 2nd all star team in the Colonial League. These were Sophomore, Karen Wagner - goalie, and Freshman, Tammy Bertolino - right wing. The starting team for the 1976 season consisted of six juniors, two sophomores and three freshmen. With such a young team this year, next year's Girls' Field Hockey Team will be sure to have a winning team.

Despite an overall team record of 3-10, the Racquetters lost four matches by only one game. With the 1-2-3 players all juniors, Coach Sid Segal and Asst. Coach Bev Roberts expect the rebuilding program to create a stir in the Colonial League next year.

Seniors Brenda Hall, and (Capt.) Lisa DiLorenzo ended their high school career in late October. Those remaining look forward to higher standings with another year of experience behind them.

GIRLS' BREAK 3 YEAR STREAK

Three years! For three trying years, the Girls' Basketball Team suffered loss after disheartening loss. Never doubting that some day their long-running losing streak would be broken. This year, the glorious year of 1977, that streak was broken, torn down, and smashed in the most emotionally charged game of the season. On January 26, Salisbury was the guest to the first Wilson victory in over fifty games. Coaches Nancy Chamberlain and Gus Mellick never lost faith in the team and knew this year would find Wilson as winners once more. As of this writing, the second half is not yet over, but neither are the victories of the 1977 Wilson High School Girls' Basketball Team.

PLAYOFFS AGAIN

Coming off a strong second half season, Wilson once again took the trip to the Play-offs. The Warrior team won their first game against Catty (72-67) and went on to play Bangor winning (46-44). This time the Warrior team met Leighton and unfortunately came up short (74-61). However, Warriors were not dead yet. Later that week they took a trip to Pottsville to meet Bishop Hafey. Although the game was close and the Warriors fought a tough battle, Bishop Hafey proved to be the winner (60-57). The Warrior's got closer this year than in previous years and we expect them to go all the way next year!

The 1976-77 Wilson High School Mat Rats finished the season with a 7-1-8 school meet record. This record in no way shows the strains and hardships that each individual wrestler went through. Captains Jim Nolasco and Chris Young sparked enthusiasm in all their fellow wrestlers. Each individual record was more than the school meet records can show. Three of the wrestlers advanced into the AA State Championships. They were Jim Nolasco, - 129, - Tony Tarsi - 105, Jeff Bartholomew at Heavyweight. Congratulations to the team for a fine season.

Congratulations

Every year, near the end of October, many musical students meet at Easton High School for District Tryouts. They practice one piece of music all summer for this; only the best make it. This year, eight people succeeded.

District Chorus, held at Nazareth High School, February 3, 4, 5 contained four of them. Jeff Kline (tenor II), Dave DiVentura (tenor I), Cindy Lesh (alto II) and Sue Lesh (alto I) sang under the direction of Ronald Burrichter. Sue soloed in "Ain't Got Time To Die." They reauditioned; Cindy, Jeff, and Sue made it to Regionals. Held at Pottsville High School, on March 17, 18, 19. Daniel Pinkham conducted the chorus. Jeff Curnow (trumpet) and Doug Long (trumpet) performed in a small orchestra that accompanied the chorus. This year, Sue Lesh went to Pittsburg for All-State Chorus. Last year, she reauditioned at Regionals and was selected. Held at the Hilton Hotel, on January 3, 4, 5, Paul Salamunivich conducted the chorus.

District Band took Jeff Curnow (trumpet), Ed Bartakovits (clarinet), and Doug Long (trumpet). Their concert was in Hamburg High School, February 10, 11, 12. They played under Dr. James Wells, Jeff soloed in "Outdoor Overture." They all made Regionals, held at William Allen High School on March 31, April 1, 2.

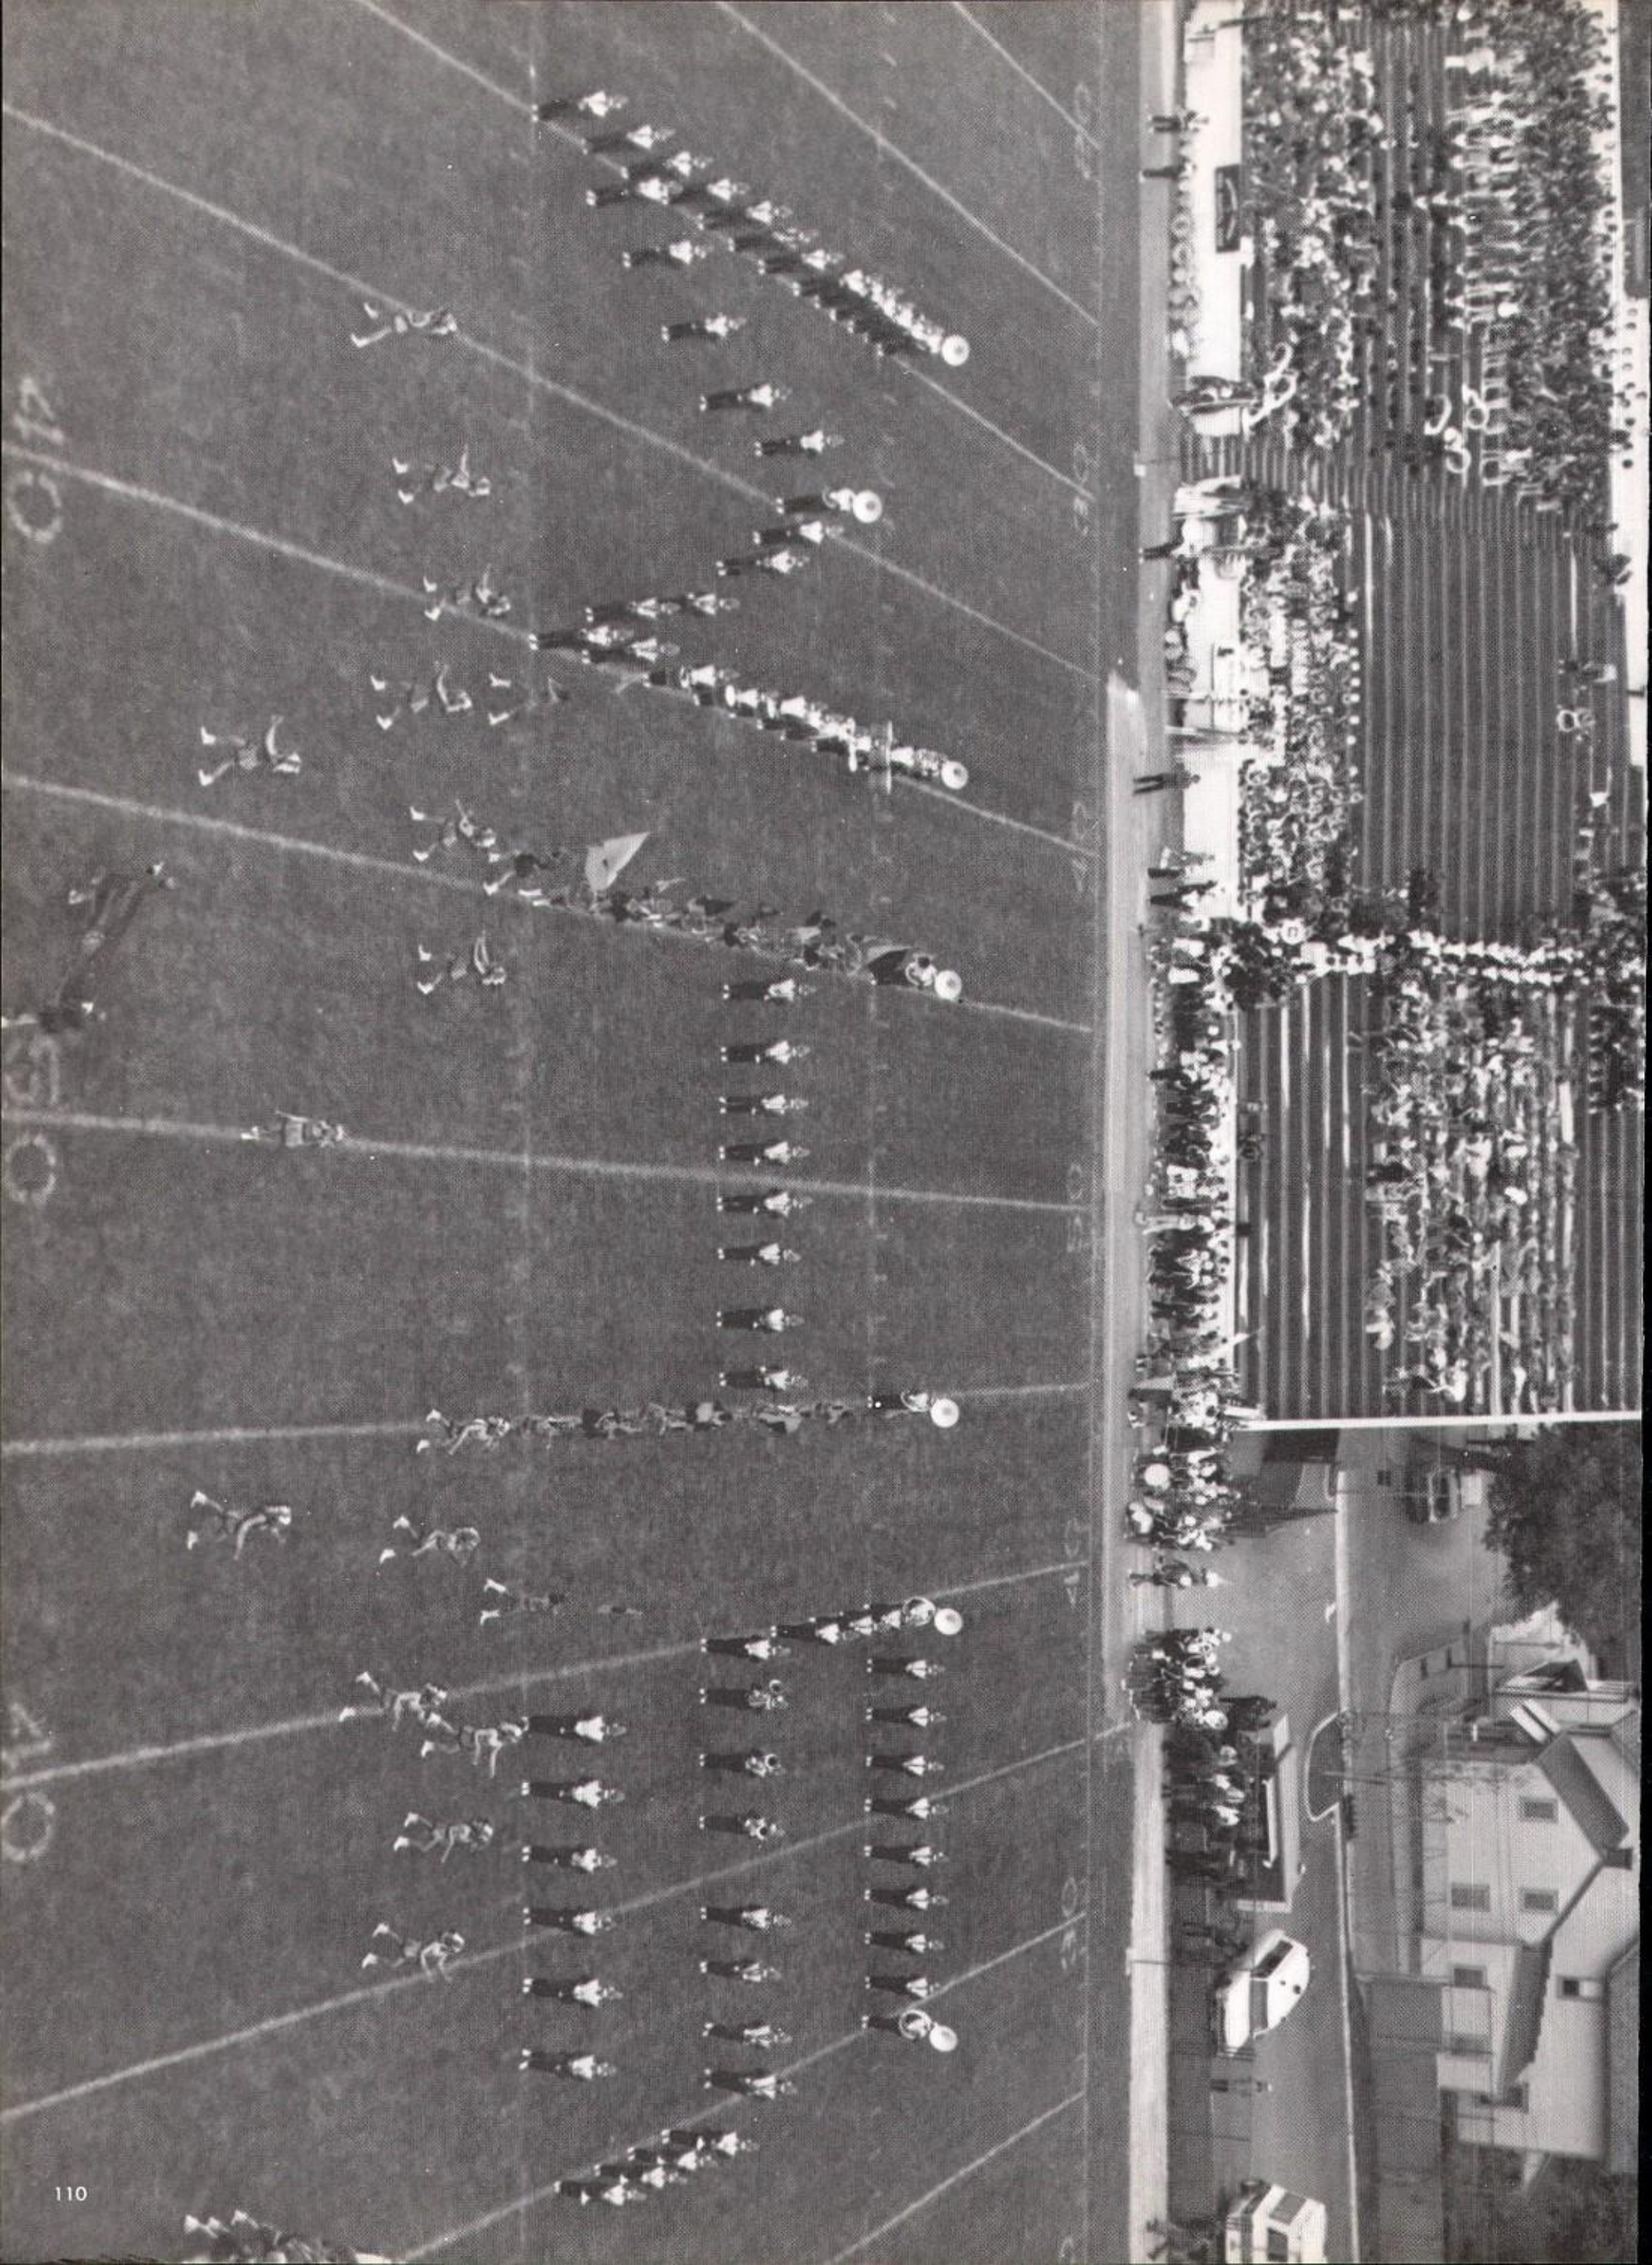

District Orchestra selected Doug Long (trumpet), Jeff Curnow (trumpet), and Lisa DiLorenzo (viola). Under the direction of Jacques Voois, they performed on January 13, 14, 15 at Emmaus High School. Jeff soloed in "Prelude Hymn and Dance." Jeff and Lisa made Regionals, held at Wyalusing High School on February 24, 25, 26. Vaclav Nelhybel conducted.

We congratulate these fine musicians and give them luck in their musical years ahead.

MUSIC

Where'd everybody go?

"Now Hear This!"

Without the tireless effort of the band boosters and numerous fund-raising projects, the band wouldn't be able to attend many special functions. The band boosters have organized fund raisers which include bingo every Wednesday night, selling chances, pies, pizzas, and candy. Also every year a delicious spaghetti dinner is sponsored by the Boosters.

The money that has been raised this year has been spent for the trip to Niagara Falls and Toronto, Canada - Thank you Band Boosters!

"I'd like to dedicate the next song to . . ."

"I've had enough of this!"

"Love will keep us together"

"Now Don't Forget . . ."

"We'll get it yet"

"I think I'm in the wrong squad."

"I don't want to stand here."

"Let's hear it for the twir-ers!"

Now we know how sar-dines feel!

ENSEMBLES

ENSEMBLES

After football season ends, the band begins working in ensembles-smaller groups. The brass choir (upper right) gave us an antiphonal effect by having two choirs, one on each side of the stage, at Christmas time. The concert band (lower middle), the same size as the marching band, plays on stage at Christmas and spring. This year, they are going to give a concert in Toronto. The members are the same in both bands. The orchestra (not shown) combines with Easton's orchestra to become the All-City Orchestra. They perform in spring at alternating schools. The stage band (right) goes into competition with other schools of the area, usually held at Easton High School. Many of these members are part of the "Funny Girl" orchestra. These ensembles are not publicized as much as the marching band, but they deserve to be. So come out and enjoy their concerts.

BRASS CHOIR - 1st ROW: E. Snyder, N. Moser, S. Curnow, R. James, S. Koshy. 2nd ROW: Mr. Curnow (conductor) S. Koshy, S. Barr, P. Monaco, R. Moser, R. Bartakovits. 3rd ROW: M. Campbell, J. Harvey, D. Wolfinger, D. Long, J. Curnow, B. Robison.

STAGE BAND - 1st ROW: S. Lesh, F. DiLorenzo, M. Mulford, B. Hgenbuch, L. Oddo, C. Lesh, B. Hall. 2nd ROW: D. Lesh, L. DiLorenz, J. Hoag, B. Lesh. 3rd ROW: S. Koshy, R. Moser, K. Kraemer, S. Barr, R. Bartakovits, B. Robison, D. Wolfinger, D. Long, J. Curnow, M. Campbell.

9th GRADE CHORUS

The 9th grade chorus provides an important step between the Middle School Chorus and the Sr. Hi Chorus. Created because of the middle school, they rehearse twice a week, 8th period and perform in spring and at Christmas. They learn how to sing and think as a group. This step prepares them for Sr. Hi, Wilsonnaire and even District auditions. So if you have a younger brother or sister, urge them to join.

Accompanist - Faye Robison, Conductor - Ms. Roberts. 1st ROW: C. Walters, K. Muretta, S. Koshy, R. Fern, V. Border, C. Heckman, K. Kessler, K. Coyle. 2nd ROW: K. Lilly, S. Mulitsch, D. Fisher, L. OFFICERS - Mark Campbell (pres.), Sue Lesh (v-pres.), Lisa DiLorenzo (sec.), Diane Klingerman (historian), Dorcas Beck (treasurer), Linda Keck (librarian) - missing.

SENIOR HIGH CHORUS - "77"

Our chorus puts on two concerts, at the school, every year. These concerts, however, are not the only product of their voices. During Christmas, the Mixed Chorus and Wilsonnaires were asked to sing at the Mall. The Wilsonnaires have many jobs ranging from an employee party at Hess' (a generous donation of $100 was presented to them) to a church dinner. This year, the Wilsonnaires provided music for a block party on Christmas Eve. They managed to sing angelically despite the freezing weather. Donations from the jobs are put into the chorus fund, which pays for the District, Regional and State music.

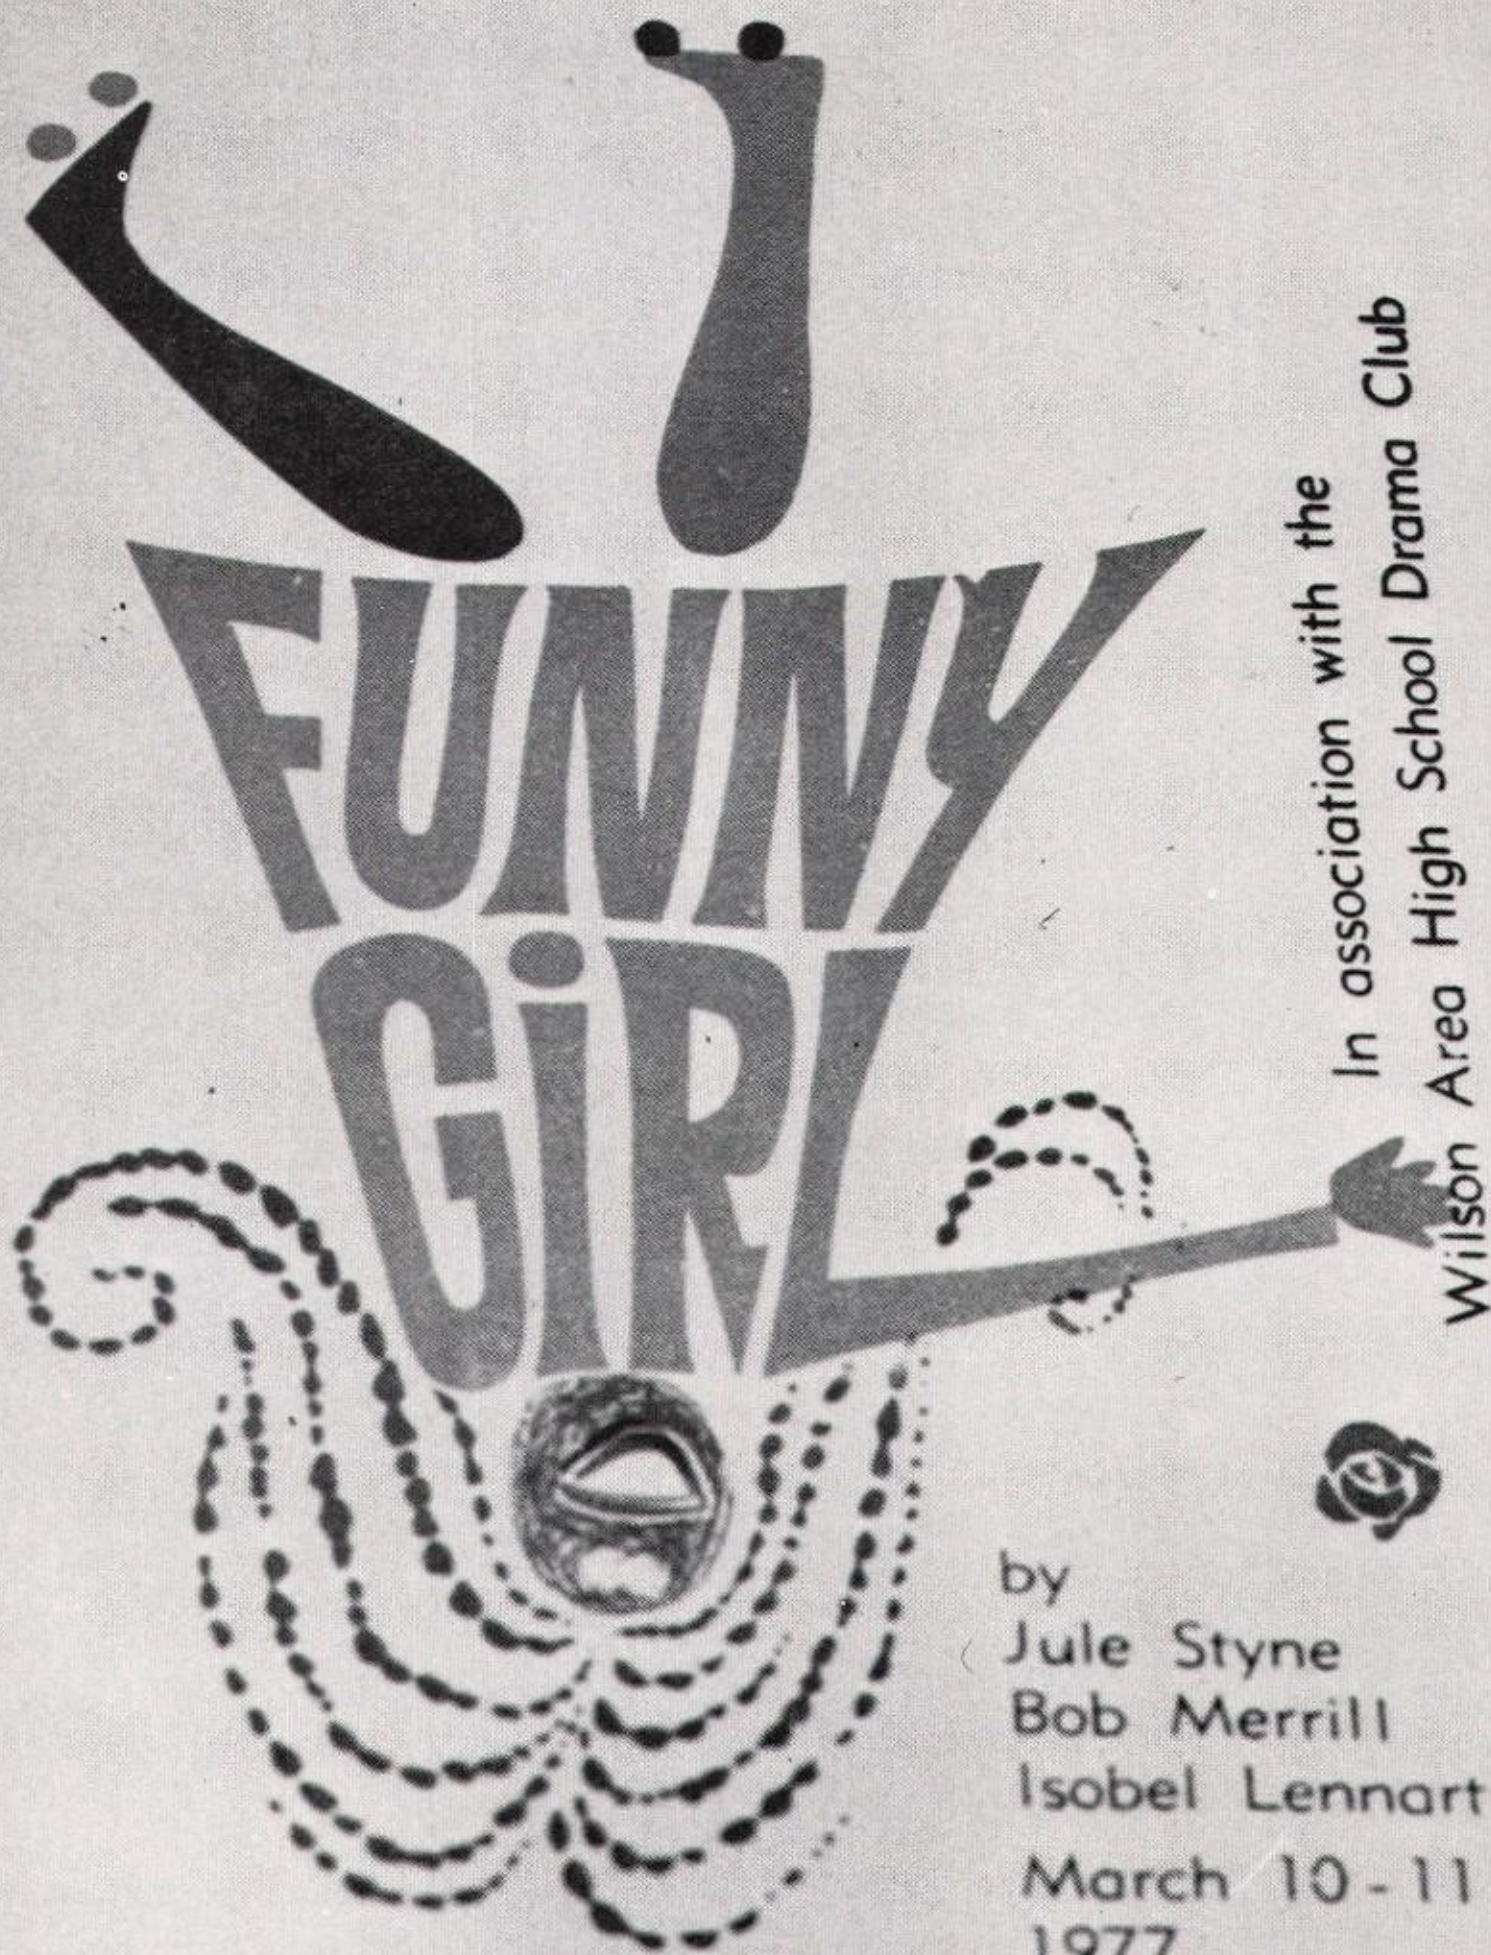

The vests and skirts of the Wilsonnaire girls were made by Mrs. Rush and Mrs. Roberts. The bow ties by Mrs. Reppert.

SR. HI CHORUS - ACCOMPANISTS - SEATED: L. DiLorenzo, N. Moser, J. Kline. CONDUCTOR - Ms. Roberts. 1st ROW: D. Medellin, L. Keck, K. Gerhart, J. Simonetta, S. Cochias, N. Hittinger, C. Without the people on this page, the play would surely not have gotten off the ground. The Makeup Crew, Stage Crew and Mr. Reese, added a little something extra to the performances. The directing by Mr. Kaye and Mr. Segal was only of the highest quality, and Barb Fairchild did more than her share as Student Director. Special thanks to Melissa Kraus for the extra time she put in, learning Fanny's part in one crash-course. It was fantastic. Congrats!

Mr. Segal

Wardrobe of Funny Girl.

All my friends from the Theatre.

The Chorus - without them my big numbers would have been nothing!

Seven people who helped me on my road to success.

My name, Eddie, Mrs. Straykosh and Nick after one of my little performances.

A POEM FROM A FRIEND

Finally after much worry and fret,
FUNNY GIRL arrived on the set.
The kids had worked for oh so long,
All hoped that nothing would go wrong.

The lights dimmed, the music began,
Bill Curnow directed as he only can.
With Mr. Kuder a part of the musical score,
The opening deserved another encore.

The curtain parted to a dressing room.
The audience waited to hear the cast boom.
"If a girl isn't pretty" the whole cast sang,
The show was off to a musical bang.

When Peggy sang, the audience sighed,
Her voice was perfect; the doctor lied.
Tonight she would prove by far,
That SHE certainly would be OUR greatest star.

Keeney's didn't like our Miss Brice.
She couldn't sign, her figure wasn't nice.
But she caught the eye of a man, quite suave —
Nicky Arnstein — he'd capture her love.

Mrs. Brice, Mrs. Strakosh were full of news.
They gossiped, like two motherly Jews.
What they heard they would always tell,
Sue and Barbara acted so well.

A big dance number on Henry Street.
Our students possessed real dancing feet.
They danced with vigor and sang with zest.
Everyone was giving their very best.

Nicky Arnstein had captured Fanny's heart.
Eddie Ryan could not tear them apart.

Fanny said it as best you can —
She was woman and Nick was man.

It was time for marriage; love would win.
Fanny loved Nick, could it have been
That for each other they were made?
Please don't rain on their parade.

The second act was just as strong
As number one, where nothing went wrong.
A baby had come, everything was well.
Trouble would follow, but who could tell?

With Mrs. Brice told to find a man
(If she could get one, anyone can),
The dance numbers were where "it was at"
Especially the moves of RAT-TAT-TAT-TAT.

Nick was gambling, but losing now.
Fanny, a star, toast of the town.
It wasn't working, Nick was lost.
He couldn't succeed; Fanny was boss.

In jail he spent much time seeking
His soul, his love; INSIDE he was peeking.
Fanny and Nick would have to part.
The ending certainly would break your heart.

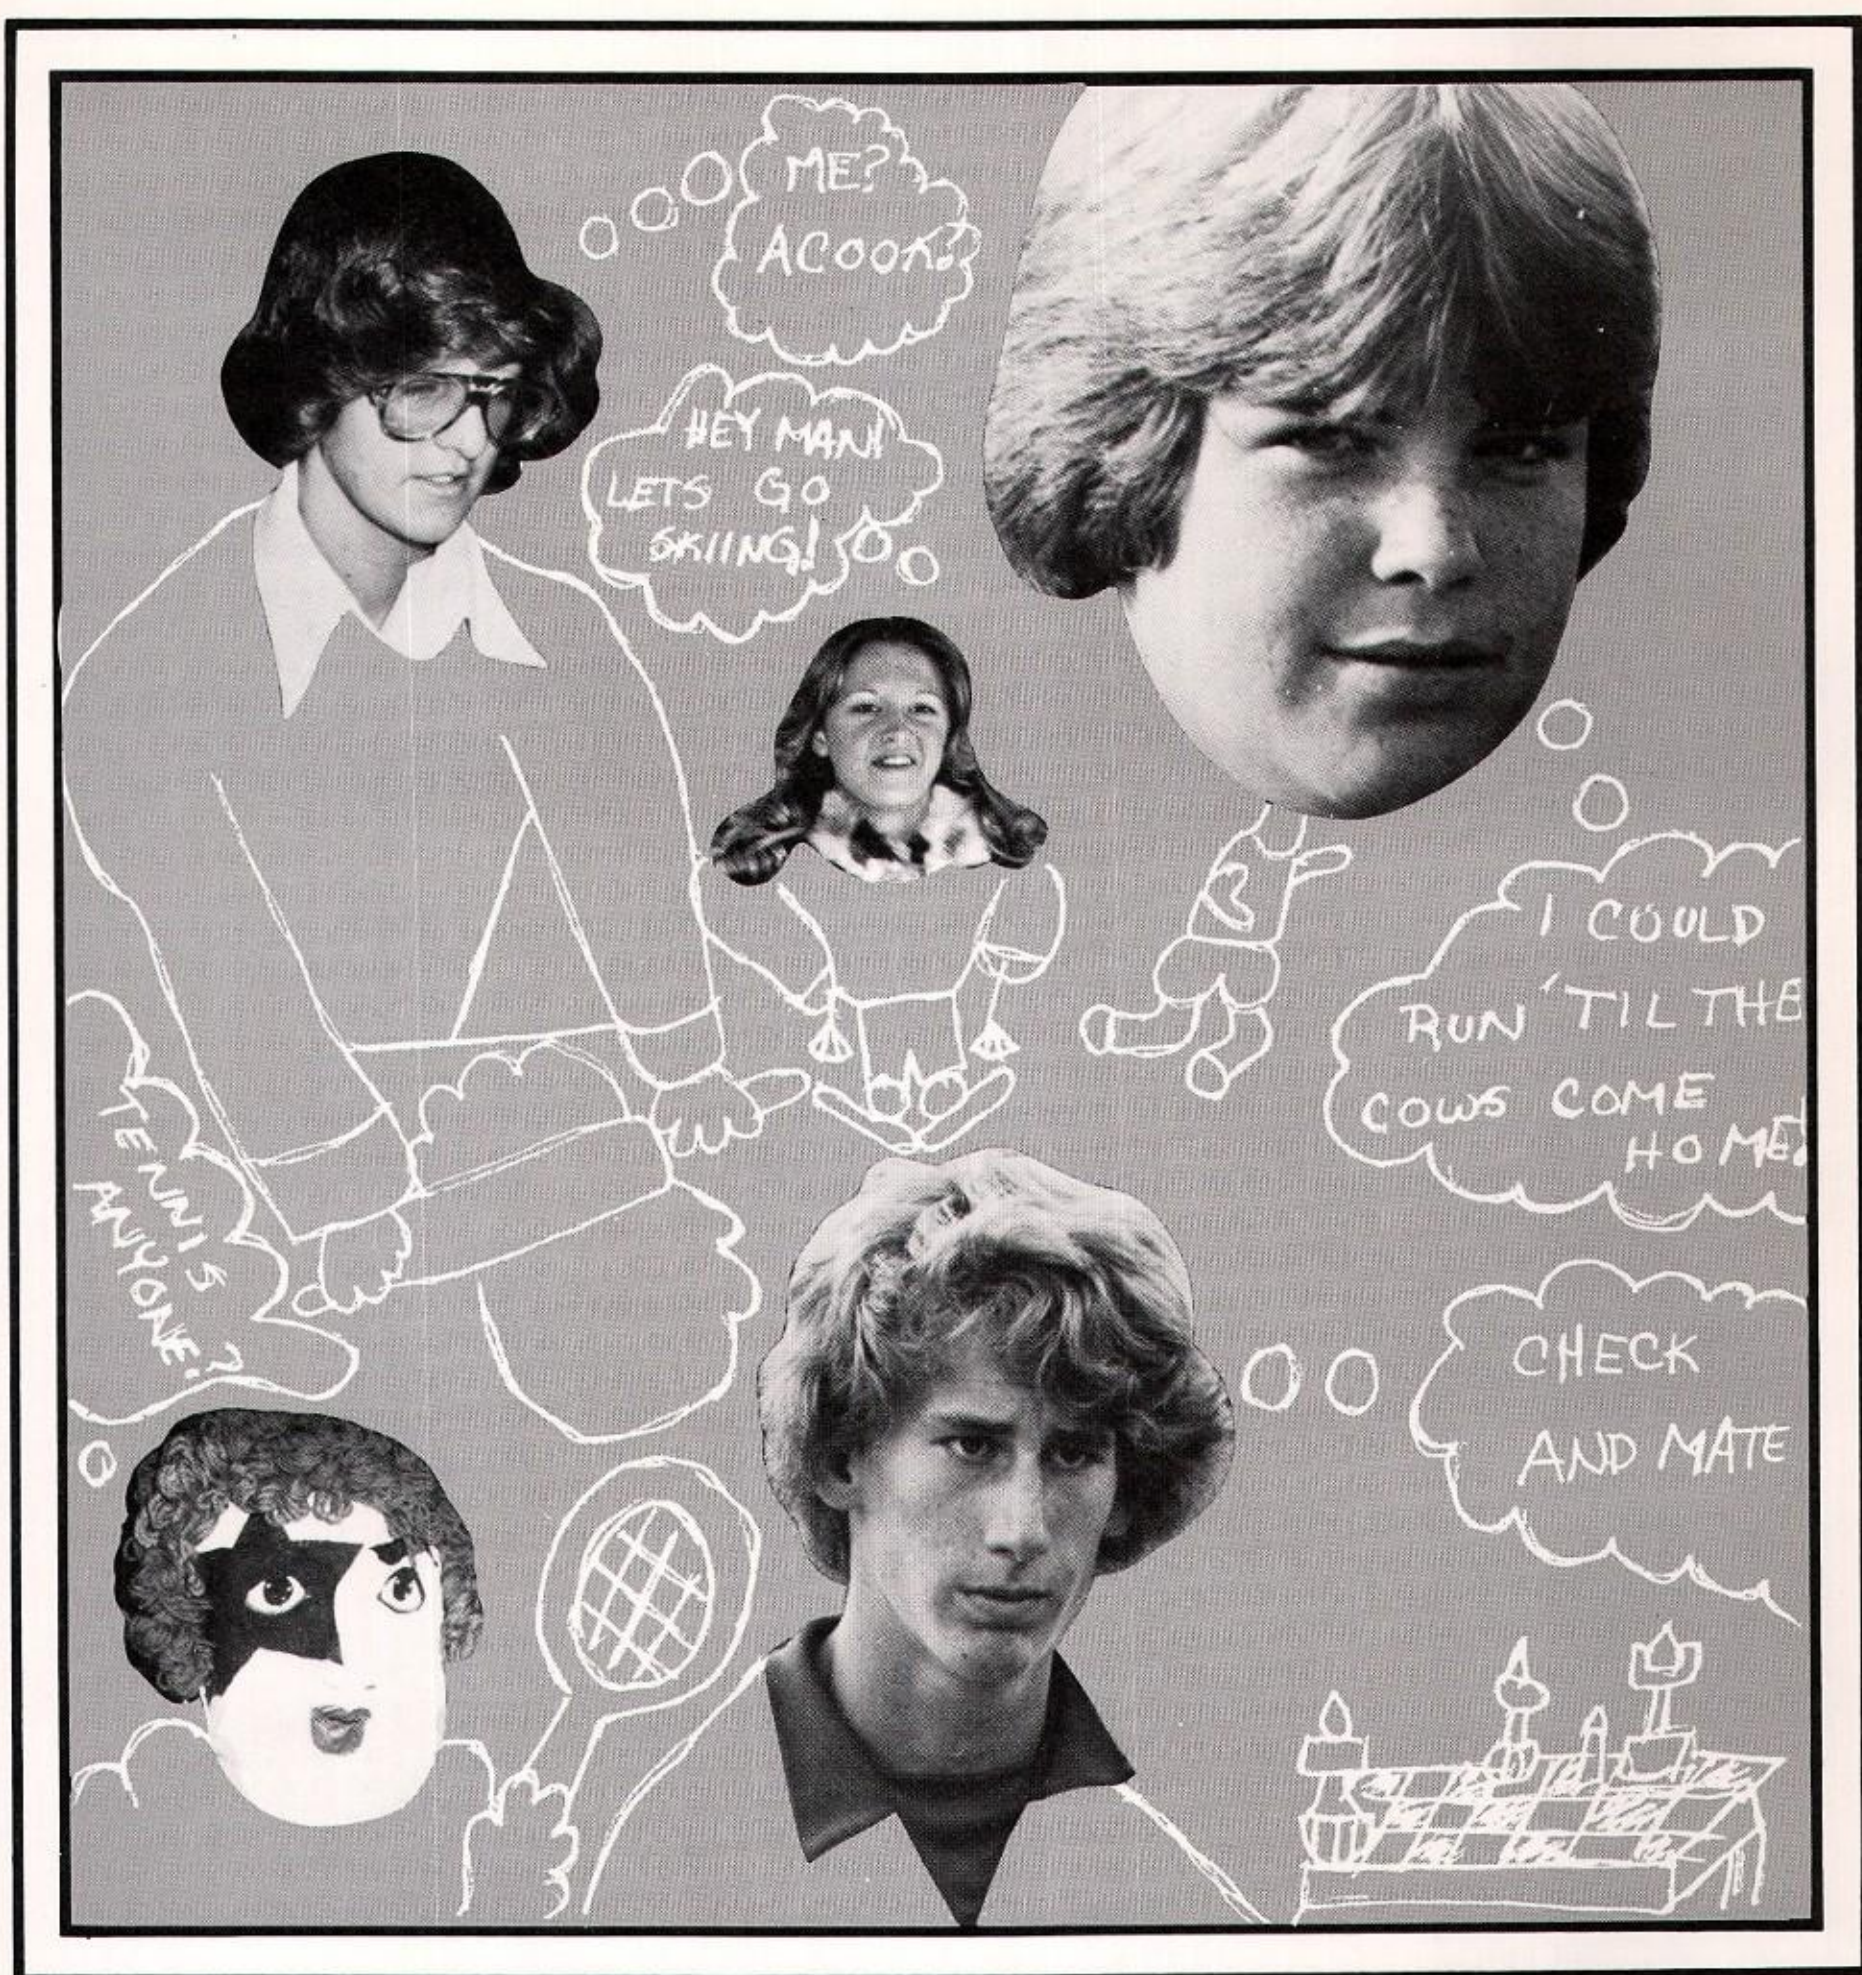

The curtain fell, the show was over.
Show business would be Fanny's lover.
Looking back at the play, congratulations.
The cast deserved their standing ovations.

So Mr. Kaye, Mr. Segal, and crew,
We loved your show, your music and you.
You did it again, this time with a tear.
We can't wait until next year.

Mr. Laubach

Those Beautiful Ziegfeld girls who helped me so much.

A SPECIAL THANKS

The Yearbook is one project where there must be combined efforts between students and teachers. Here the Yearbook staff of 1977, would especially like to thank Miss Hay of the business staff, Mrs. Tucker, our faithful advisor, her assistant, Mr. Murray, Mr. Torcivia, a great photographer, and Mr. Roe, a kind man willing to do anything for the betterment of the book. This edition of "Les Memoires" would not have been possible without each one of them.

SENIOR-FACULTY GAMES

TEACHERS SWEEP! Both the Men's and Women's Faculty gained victories this year in the annual Senior-Faculty games, but in a very contrasting fashion. The men pulled away from our senior boys early and went on to romp 73-42. The Senior girls, however, made a brilliant comeback only to come up short, 34-31. Not only did the games give our seniors a chance to get even for six years of aggravation from the faculty, but it also provided $600.00 for scholarships to benefit two seniors who plan to pursue a career in education.

Lisa Guerke, 1977's Exchange Student has spent her Senior year in Sweden. She has traveled throughout the country and thoroughly enjoyed her year abroad. Even though Lisa was not here, we include her in all our thoughts of our last year at Wilson. We missed you Lisa!

Mark Eisenhard was chosen as Scholar athlete for the 1977 school year. Congratulations on a well deserved award!

Mr. Cardell was chosen this year as the Teacher of the Year. Congratulations Mr. Cardell! We know you deserved it!

Miss Susan Kiucsick was joined in marriage to Mr. Robert Tucker this past summer. Congratulations to a beautiful couple!

THE WAY WE WERE

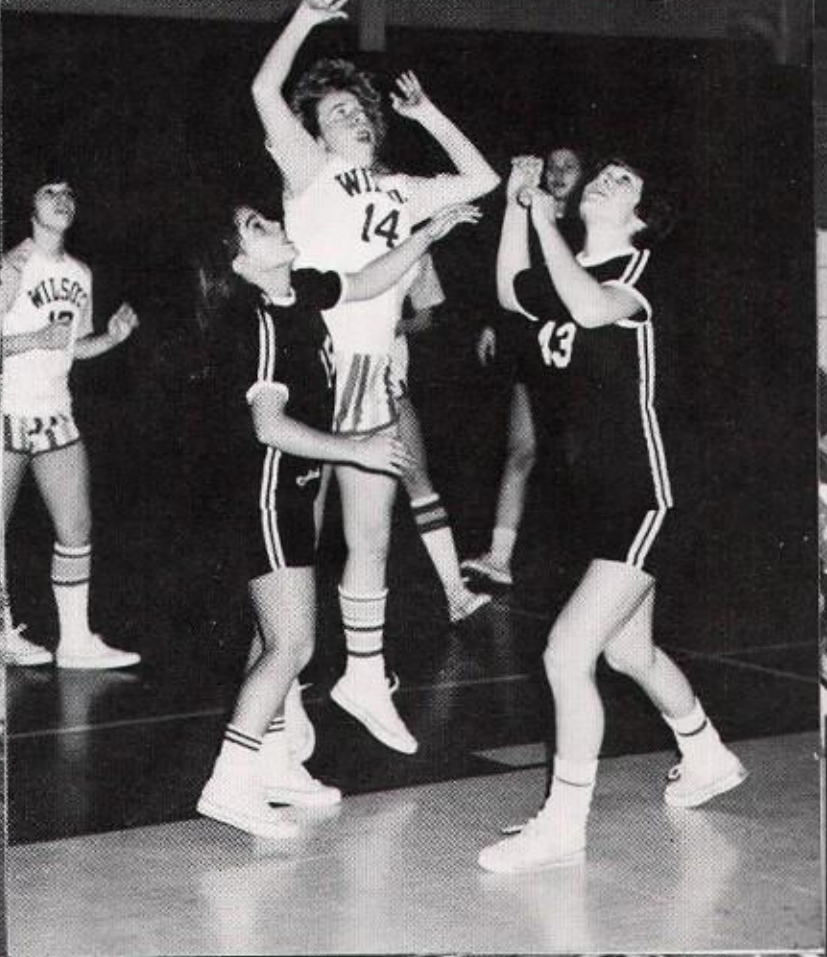

Memories, Light the corners of my mind, misty water color memories . . . of the way we were.

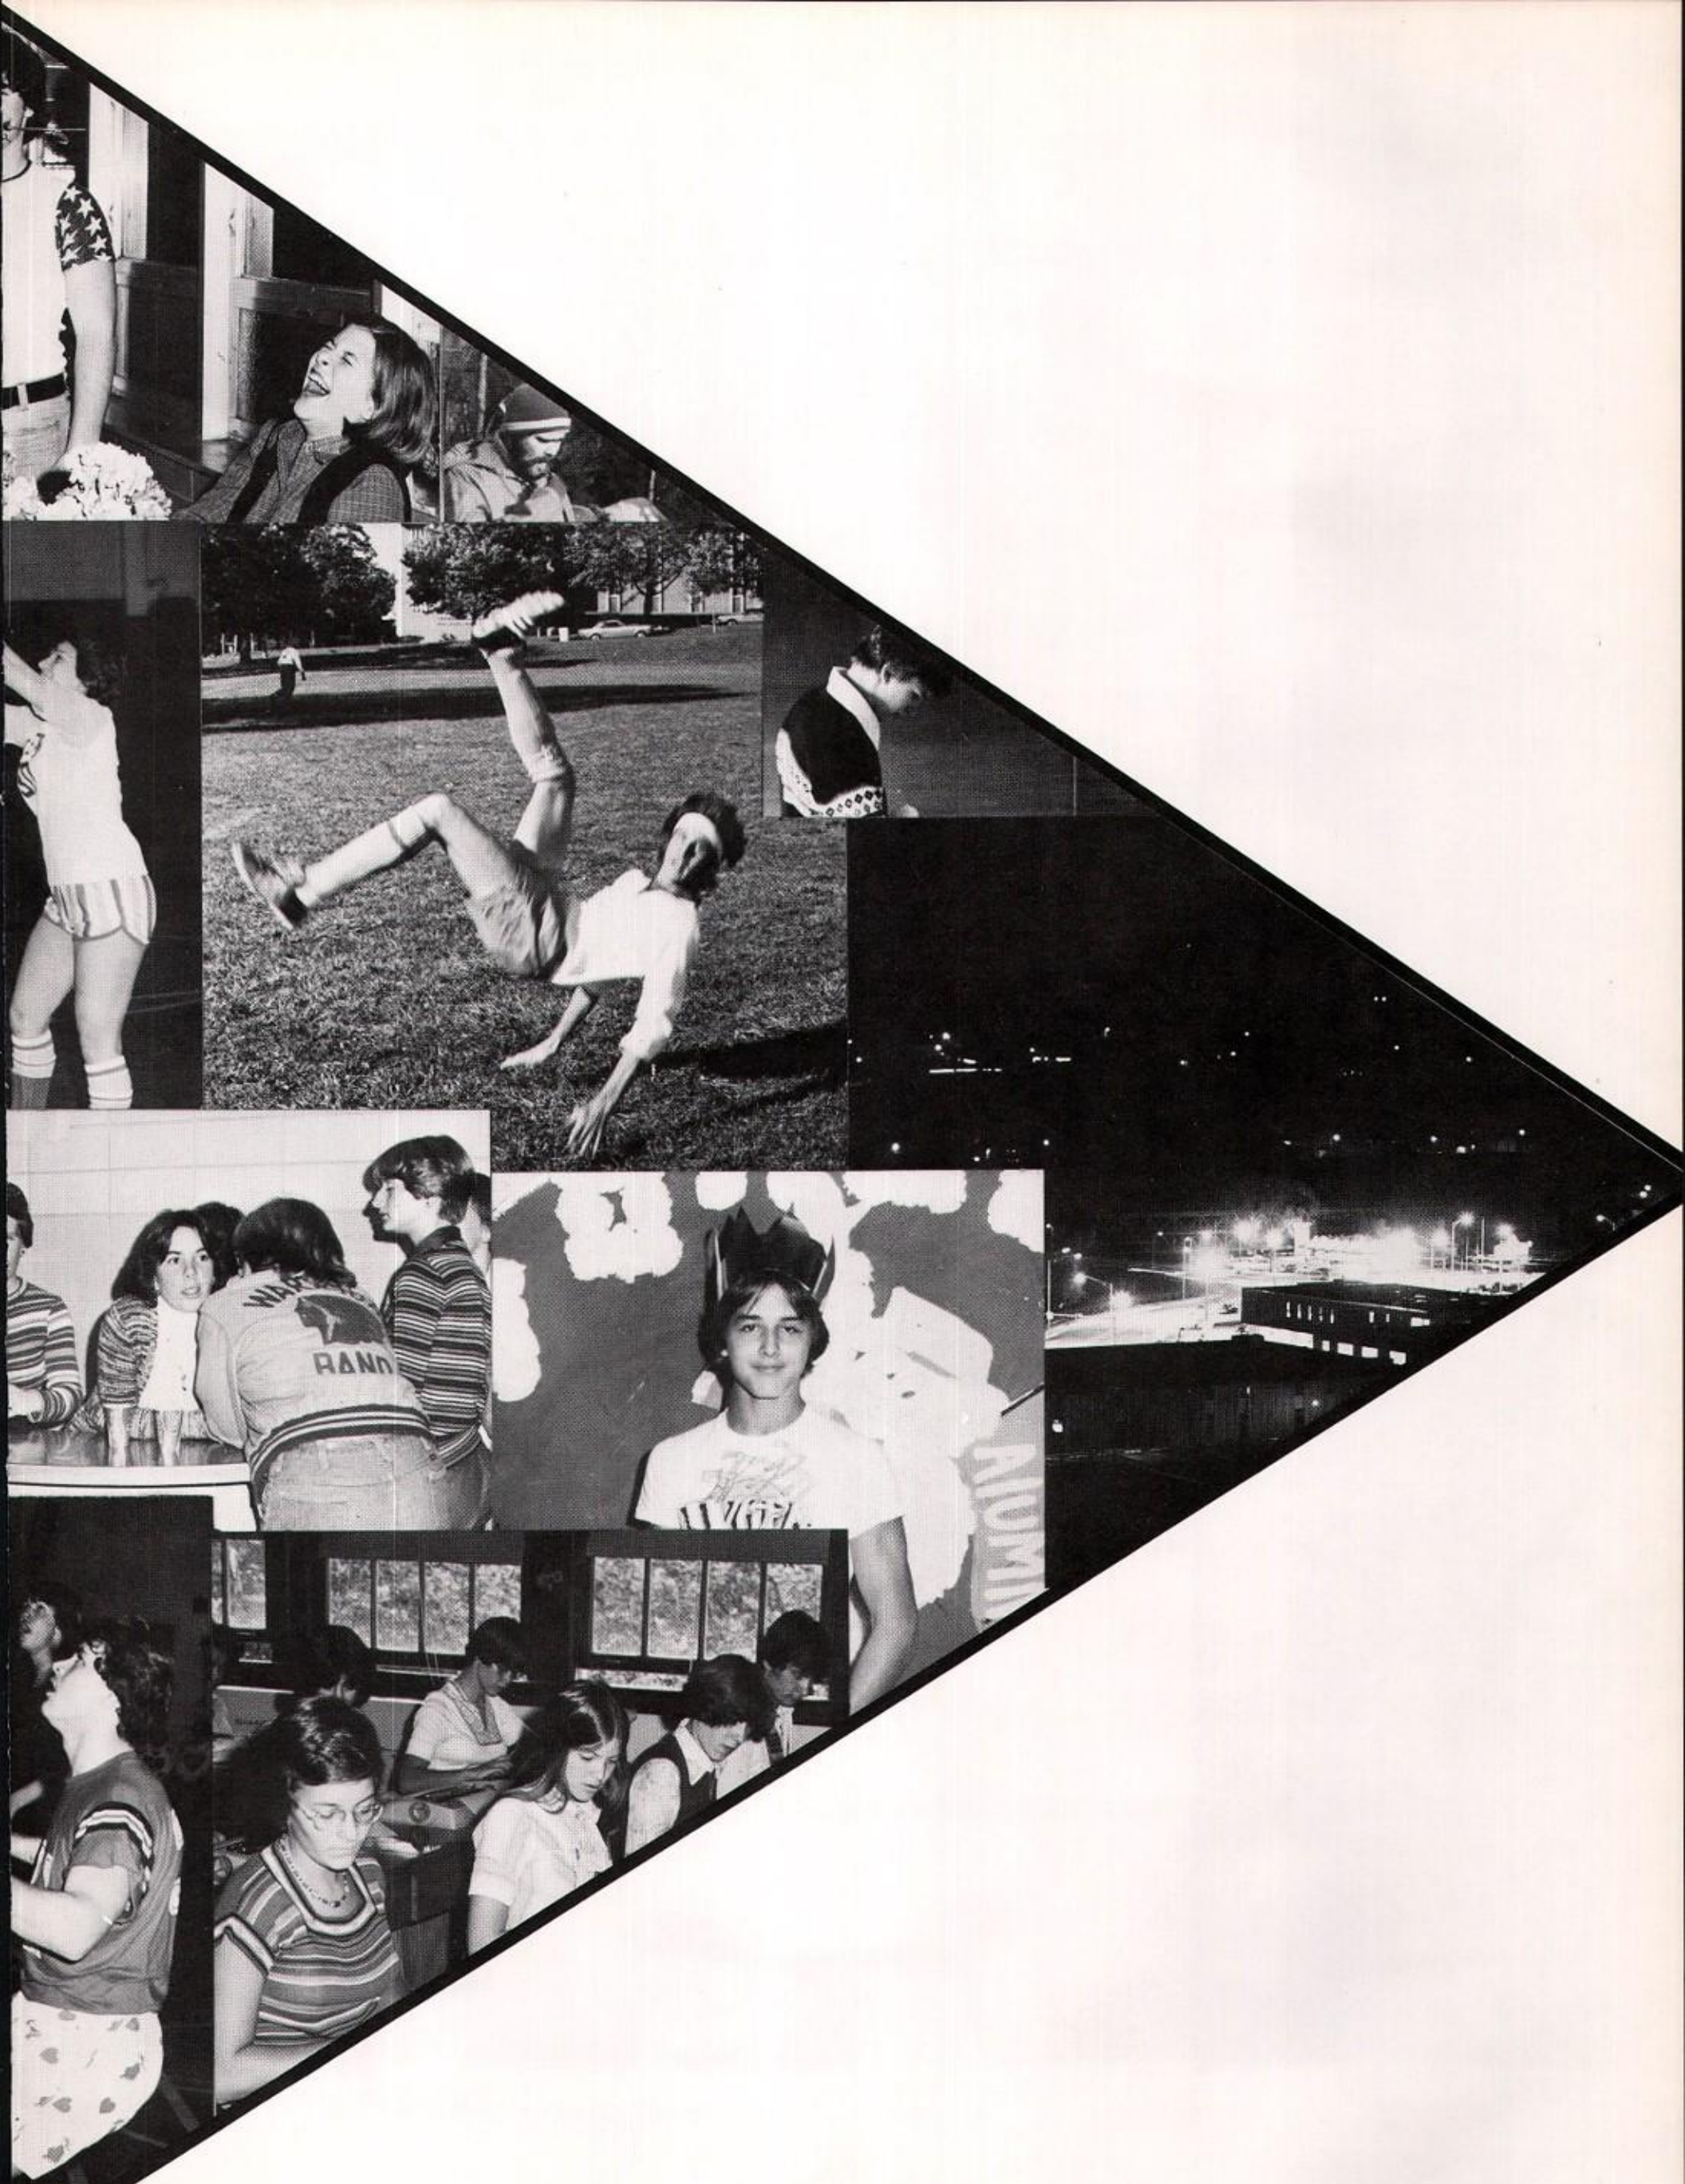

Scattered pictures, of the smiles we left behind, smiles we gave to one another, for the way we were.

Can it be that it was all so simple then? Or has time rewritten every line, and if we had the chance to do it all again tell me, would we, could we? Memories, may be beautiful . . . and yet, thoughts too painful to remember . . . we simply choose to forget. So it's the laughter, we will remember, whenever we remember, the way we were.

Dearest Readers

It has been our goal to compile as complete a collection of "memories" as possible. In order to obtain our goal, our advisors, editors and staff have initiated a supplement to the 1977 edition of "LES MEMOIRES."

Our original intent was to give spring sports the thorough coverage they deserve. "Senior memories" were also given priority. We're confident that graduation, the class trip, and Wilson Day will be a valuable asset to our publication.

Although this will intensify the stress and strain of the staff and extend our meetings into the summer months, we feel that it's well worth our time. The continuation of this innovation is up to you, our readers. Don't disappoint us. Thanks for patronizing our year-book.

Sincerely, yours,
The Staff.
